

Changes to Resurs Holding's Group Management

To continue its fantastic growth and further boost the business, the Resurs Group is now recruiting a Chief Commercial Officer who will assume overall operational responsibility for commercial activities. This individual will be a member of Resurs Holding's Group Management and replace the current three segment heads. Anette Konar Riple, Chief Marketing Officer, will also join Group Management on 1 September.

Anette began in her position in March 2017 and most recently served as the Marketing Director at Euroflorist. She has previously worked in marketing and communication at companies including Procter & Gamble and Kreab.

"We have a fantastic company that has grown substantially, and we will continue to do so. We are strengthening our organisation with this recruitment, and it affords me greater opportunity to focus on strategic issues and our long-term development moving forward," says CEO Kenneth Nilsson.
