

Resurs's CFO to step down from Group Management and assume a new position within the company

Resurs's CFO and Head of IR, Jonas Olin, has decided to leave his current post, and as a result Group Management, at his own request and due to health reasons. Jonas Olin will remain part of the company in a new role as Finance Strategy Director.

Resurs's CFO and Head of IR, Jonas Olin, has decided to leave his current post, and as a result Group Management, due to health reasons. Recruitment of a new CFO is now under way and Jonas will step down from his role as CFO on 10 February. On 10 February, Claes Wenthzel will assume the role of acting CFO. Claes is an interim consultant with extensive experience as CFO of listed companies in the medicine and gaming industries.

"I have complete respect for Jonas's decision and we are pleased that his valuable expertise will continue to be present within the Resurs Group as he soon assumes a new role. We are now beginning the recruitment process of a new CFO and Head of IR who can join us in driving and leading our financial work," says Nils Carlsson, CEO, Resurs Holding.
