IMPORTANT INFORMATION

In this prospectus (the “Prospectus”), the “Issuer” means Resurs Holding AB (publ), Swedish Corporate ID No. 556898-2291 and LEI code 5493006KHVZ6OVF3IO54. “Resurs”, the “Resurs Group” or the “Group” means the Issuer and its Subsidiaries from time to time (each a “Group Company”). “Subsidiary” means, in relation to any person, any Swedish or foreign legal entity (whether incorporated or not), which at the time is a subsidiary (dotterbolag) to such person, directly or indirectly, as defined in the Swedish Companies Act (aktiebolagslagen (2005:551)). “Resurs Bank” means Resurs Bank Aktiebolag (publ), Swedish Corporate ID No. 516401-0208 and LEI code 549300DM53OEWUWU0647, which is a wholly-owned Subsidiary of the Issuer.

On 14 December 2023 (the “Issue Date”), the Issuer issued Floating Rate Additional Tier 1 Capital Notes (the “Notes”) in the Total Nominal Amount of SEK 300,000,000. In this Prospectus and except as otherwise indicated, references to the “Terms and Conditions” are to the terms and conditions of the Notes (set out in the section “Terms and Conditions for the Notes” below). Words and expressions defined in the Terms and Conditions have the same meanings when used in this Prospectus, unless expressly stated or otherwise follows from the context.

This Prospectus has been prepared for the admission to trading of the Notes on Nasdaq Stockholm. This Prospectus does not contain and does not constitute an offer or a solicitation to buy or sell Notes. This Prospectus is governed by Swedish law. The courts of Sweden have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection herewith.

This Prospectus has been approved by the Swedish Financial Supervisory Authority (Finansinspektionen) (the “Swedish FSA”) pursuant to the provisions of Article 20 of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 June 2017 on the prospectus to be published when securities are offered to the public or admitted to trading on a regulated market, and repealing Directive 2003/71/EC (the “Prospectus Regulation”).

Solely for the purposes of the product governance requirements set forth in Directive 2014/65/EU as amended (“MIFID II”), the target market assessment made by the Joint Bookrunners for the Notes has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Notes is eligible counterparties and professional clients only, each as defined in MIFID II; and (ii) all channels for distribution of the Notes to eligible counterparties and professional clients are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a “Distributor”) should take into consideration the Joint Bookrunners’ target market assessment. However, a Distributor subject to MIFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the Joint Bookrunners’ target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

The Notes are not intended to be, and should thus not be, offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (“EEA”). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive 2002/92/EC (as amended), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Directive 2003/71/EC (as amended). Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No. 1286/2014 (as amended, the “PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

This Prospectus may not be distributed in any jurisdiction where such distribution would require any additional prospectus, registration or measures other than those required under Swedish law, or otherwise would conflict with regulations in such jurisdiction. Persons into whose possession this Prospectus may come are required to inform themselves about, and comply with such restrictions. Any failure to comply with such restrictions may result in a violation of applicable securities regulations. The Notes may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. The Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”) or the securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction outside Sweden.

Each potential investor in the Notes must in light of its own circumstances determine the suitability of the investment. In particular, each potential investor should conduct their own investigation and analysis of the Issuer and the Resurs Group and the data set forth in this Prospectus and investors are urged to take steps to ensure that they understand the transaction and have made an independent assessment of the appropriateness of the transaction in light of their own objectives and circumstances before entering into any transaction (including the possible risks and benefits of entering into such transaction). Investors should also consider seeking advice from their own advisers in making this assessment.

RISK FACTORS

The purpose of this section is to enable a potential investor to assess the relevant risks related to their potential investment in the Notes in order to make an informed investment decision. The risk factors set forth below are therefore limited to risks that are material and specific to Resurs Holding AB (publ) (the “Issuer” and together with its direct and indirect subsidiaries, the “Group”) and the Notes in the opinion of the Issuer in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 June 2017.

In this section, material risk factors are illustrated and discussed, including the Issuer’s economic and market risks, business risks, legal and regulatory risks, as well as structural risks relating to the Notes and risks related to debt instrument such as the Notes. The Issuer’s assessment of the materiality of each risk factor is based on the probability of their occurrence and the expected magnitude of their negative impact. The description of the risk factors below is based on information available and estimates made on the date of this Prospectus.

The risk factors are presented in categories where the most material risk factors in a category are presented first under that category. Subsequent risk factors in the same category are not ranked in order of materiality or probability of occurrence. Where a risk factor may be categorised in more than one category, such risk factor appears only once and in the most relevant category for such risk factor.

RISKS RELATING TO THE ISSUER

Economic and market risks

Risks relating to disruptions in the economies in the Nordic region and other countries

Resurs is exposed to general market conditions and the level of economic activity in the countries in which it operates directly or indirectly. The economic conditions globally and in the markets in which Resurs operates may be affected by, among other things, changes in the consumption trends and levels, demographic patterns, unemployment level, inflation, currencies, housing market, customers’ preferences, access to and cost of credit, liquidity on the financial markets and market interest rates. For instance, high unemployment levels on the markets where Resurs operates would reduce the number of customers who qualify for Resurs’ loan and credit products and result in increased credit losses, which would in turn adversely affect Resurs’ ability to maintain the size of its loan portfolio and to improve loan performance with respect to new loans. Accordingly, a severe deterioration in global or regional economic conditions would adversely affect demand for the products and services offered by Resurs.

One factor that has led to significant volatility and uncertainty in the financial markets and in the global economy is armed conflicts, terrorism and wars. Among other things, this has led to higher interest rates and inflation, which could have a negative impact on Resurs. It is uncertain, and highly difficult, to predict exactly what impact or consequence this may have on Resurs and therefore constitutes a risk for investors in the Notes.

Turbulence in the financial markets can have a negative impact on Resurs directly and indirectly. Disruptions can be more or less extensive, and it is difficult to assess the exact impact of the development, but it constitutes a risk to Resurs’ long-term ability to maintain current margins, profitability and demand. A recent example of the foregoing occurred during the first quarter of 2023, when the banking sector in the United States and globally came under pressure following the failures of certain regional banks in the United States and the merger of Credit Suisse Group AG with UBS Group AG in a government-brokered transaction. The events, which were primarily driven by macroeconomic conditions, including rising interest rates and monetary policy tightening, threw the global financial markets into turmoil, with increased volatility and widening credit spreads.

The Nordic region is Resurs’s most important market, and Resurs has a customer base of more than 6 million private customers in the Nordics. Accordingly, Resurs is predominantly affected by the economic environment in the Nordic region. Due to the high level of consumer indebtedness in the Nordic region, primarily related to average high mortgage loans, Resurs would be affected by fluctuations on the housing market and interest rates on mortgage loans in the Nordic countries. Further, reduced customer confidence or a decline in consumption, or a negative change in the use of, or attitude towards, consumer credit in the Nordic region would have an adverse effect on sales by Resurs’ retail finance partners and, in turn, on Resurs’ ability to generate revenues and new lending. In 2022, total lending to the Nordic consumer market totalled SEK 880 billion. The degree to which a downturn or deterioration in macroeconomic conditions in the Nordic region or any other relevant region may affect Resurs is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to the size of Resurs’ loan portfolio and Resurs’ ability to attract and maintain customers in order to generate revenue and profit.

Competition in the financial services industry

Resurs' competitors can roughly be divided into two groups: full-service banks and niche lenders. Competitive factors primarily include (i) the monthly cost (including interest and loan repayment); (ii) other terms for the offered loan, including size, term to maturity and other terms; (iii) customers awareness of the brand, and (iv) the quality of the services in the form of speed of application and processing, simplicity of the product and invoicing, as well as loan availability.

There is a risk that full-service banks that offer a broad range of products and services through extensive networks of branch offices and online, may come to increase their focus on consumer loans in general and particularly on consumer loans within the retail finance sector. The full-service banks usually have a well-established commercial position, an extensive network of bank branch offices and a high level of customer awareness and recognition. The majority of Resurs' customers already have a customer relationship with at least one of these full-service banks through transaction accounts or other bank products. Therefore, full-service banks may have, and benefit from, a significant competitive advantage compared to Resurs. Given that the full-service banks in general have significantly greater funds available for lending and/or lower funding costs than Resurs, they may also be able to offer loans at lower rates of interest or on longer terms to maturity than Resurs.

Niche lenders, such as NOBA Bank (previously named Nordax Bank) (including its branch Bank Norwegian), are usually companies with a specific focus and a narrow product range compared to full-service banks. Niche lenders are important competitors to Resurs since they tend to focus on similar customer groups and offer products on similar terms as Resurs. As a consequence of the recent trend of strong demand for consumer loans in the Nordic region, there is a risk that new niche lenders enter the market and further increase competition. Certain niche lenders may also have lower funding costs than Resurs, which may enable them, among other things, to offer loans at lower rates of interest and/or on longer terms to maturity than Resurs is able to offer. In addition, companies with various online business models, such as Klarna Bank and Qliro, have entered the market for online payment solutions. There is a risk that the online payment solution checkout of Resurs will not be the preferred alternative of retailers, thus limiting the ability for Resurs to grow in the online segment. There is also a risk that companies which are now focused mainly on online payment solutions to a greater extent will enter the market for payment solutions within the physical retail finance sector.

The payment market is undergoing development, including a high growth for account to account (A2A) payment solutions, such as Swish, which contributes to changes in consumers behaviour and may affect the growth for more traditional payment methods, such as Resurs's.

Increased competition risks leading to reduced demand for Resurs's loan products, with the consequence that, in order to compete, Resurs is required to lower the rates of interest charged by Resurs on its loans, which would have a material adverse effect on Resurs's net interest margin. The degree to which an increased competition in the financial services industry may affect Resurs's net interest margin is uncertain and presents a significant risk to the Issuer's revenue, margins and results of operations.

Business risks

Resurs is exposed to liquidity and financing risks

Liquidity risk is the risk that Resurs is unable to discharge its payment obligations on the due date without borrowing at highly unfavourable rates or suffering a significant cost increase. Since Resurs Bank's business model includes, among other things, the granting of credit to customers, Resurs Bank is exposed to, and must successfully manage, liquidity and financing risks related to contractual obligations and payment commitments to customers. For example, Resurs Bank might grant its customers increased credit which can exceed the credit utilised by the customer (and which is thus booked in the consolidated accounts) in accordance with these commitments. These granted credits are unsecured and can be drawn upon up to the amount that Resurs Bank has undertaken, which can increase Resurs Bank's exposure to liquidity and financing risks related to such undertakings. The inability of Resurs Bank to anticipate future liquidity and provide for unforeseen decreases or changes in funding sources could have consequences on Resurs's ability to meet its payment obligations when they fall due and thus result in an investor not being paid in a timely manner.

Resurs's main type of financing is deposits and borrowing from the public in Sweden, Norway and Germany, which, as of 31 December 2023, totalled SEK 36 170 million (of which the vast majority were payable on demand). Should a major part of the deposits be withdrawn simultaneously or during of short period of time, this would adversely affect Resurs Bank's liquidity since it will be required to repay a significant amount on demand. Crises, pandemics geopolitical disruptions or other unforeseen events may lead to significant change in deposits from the public and/or demands for immediate repayment, for example as a result of significant concern or worsened economic situation for Resurs's customers.

Resurs Bank has issued notes since 2015. Depending on both Resurs Bank and the market, the conditions for note issuances may change from time to time. As a consequence, there will be periods when it is difficult, or not possible at all, for Resurs to issue notes, for example, adverse effects associated with crises, pandemics and economic disruptions may constitute such factors that make it difficult or unfavourable for Resurs to issue notes.

Resurs Bank has also completed a securitisation of loan receivables, a form of structured financing, referred to as Asset Backed Securities (ABS). This took place by transferring loan receivables to Resurs Bank's wholly owned subsidiary Resurs Consumer Loan 1 Limited. On 31 December 2023, a total of approximately SEK 3.7 billion in loan receivables had been transferred to Resurs Consumer Loans. In the case of an event of default or other trigger event, the financing available to Resurs Bank would be reduced, which consequently would have an adverse effect on Resurs Bank's liquidity and ability to retain and increase the size of the loan portfolio. Furthermore, a decline in the quality of Resurs Bank's loan portfolio or changes to products which prevent securitisation of loans might have an adverse effect on Resurs Bank's possibilities to retain and increase the size of the loan portfolio in the future and on interest expenses.

In the future, Resurs may need, wholly or in part, to raise new financing or refinance its existing loans. Such new financing or refinancing is dependent on, for example, conditions on the financial market and Resurs's credit reputation. Resurs's access to external financing may thus be restricted, wholly or in part, or take place on less favourable terms than is currently the case. Resurs's possibilities to avail itself of the hybrid capital market can also be restricted and, as a consequence thereof, Resurs may require more equity in order to comply with its capital adequacy requirements. The occurrence of any of the aforementioned risks resulting in Resurs lacking sufficient liquid funds or lacking the conditions for financing its business efficiently. The degree to which the liquidity and financing risks may affect Resurs is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to the Issuer.

Reputational risks related to its own business, external parties and the financial services markets as a whole

Resurs's reputation is crucial for being able to retain and develop its relationship with existing and potential customers, retail finance partners, loan and insurance brokers, debt collection agencies, employees, public authorities and others with whom Resurs cooperates and conducts business. The reputational risk for Resurs is primarily related to customer expectations regarding the delivery of Resurs's services, and the ability to meet regulatory and consumer obligations related to these services (including anti-money laundering obligations). Effects on Resurs's reputation typically originate from internal factors, such as actual or alleged mismanagement by Resurs or Resurs's employees, but also from external partners, suppliers, merchants or even competitors. For instance, Resurs Bank has outsourced parts of its management of deposits from the general public and is exposed to the risk that its partner will change its business or management, or that it is not perceived as living up to demands imposed by customers, companies and public authorities. There is also a risk of Resurs Bank being adversely affected by shortcomings or defects at the partner.

Reputational risk can be substantially damaging to Resurs's operations since Resurs's customers willingness to use Resurs's services and products could decrease, and if such risk materialises to such extent that customers choose competitors over Resurs, it would thus materially adverse Resurs's net sales and growth. It could also detrimentally affect Resurs's ability to maintain relations with external parties and secure financing. The degree to which the reputational risk may affect Resurs is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to Resurs and its ability to generate and maintain customers and business partners and, in turn, to the Issuer's ability to generate revenue and profit.

Risks relating to credit risk and failed assessments of the credit risk and creditworthiness of loan applicants and customers

Resurs Bank is exposed to risks related to customers failing to pay interest, charges and/or loan repayments on time or at all. Since no security is required for Resurs Bank's loans and other credit products, there is no security to be realised in the event customers breach the terms of their agreements or fail to repay their loans. If Resurs Bank fails to make a correct assessment of the creditworthiness of its loan applicants, this would lead to credit losses. In 2023, Resurs Bank's net credit losses amounted to SEK 1 435million. Credit losses thus present a significant risk to Resurs Bank's operating profit.

As part of Resurs Bank's credit assessment process, country-specific models are used to calculate the likelihood of a customer being able to pay interest and make repayments on time (referred to as scoring models). Resurs Bank's scoring models are partly based on analyses of historical data regarding the performance of loans within the business, but must also be tailored to specific target groups and markets. If Resurs Bank's credit policies and scoring models would prove to be inadequate to protect against unexpected credit losses due to, among other things, internal shortcomings in the risk management work or to important differences between new loan applicants and the customers on which Resurs Bank's scoring models are based and would for example, fail to include historical customer performance data throughout Resurs Bank's business, this may have the consequence that Resurs Bank is unable to correctly assess a customer's creditworthiness. Furthermore, during periods of economic downturn or recession, Resurs Bank may experience an increase in loans that are subject to debt collection measures and a higher frequency of, and greater, credit losses in the existing loan portfolio, since the ability of customers to repay their loans may have deteriorated significantly. Weaker economic conditions in the future or other changes that have an adverse effect on the creditworthiness of Resurs Bank's customers would lead to increased credit losses for Resurs Bank. If the credit loss levels increase in the future, this would adversely affect Resurs Bank's operating profit.

Relevant authorities in the countries where Resurs Bank operates regularly conduct inspections of Resurs Bank's and other industry players' methods for assessing the credit risk and creditworthiness of loan applicants. There is a risk that authorities as a result of such inspections conclude that Resurs bank's methods are inadequate and therefore order Resurs bank to take measures to comply with the authorities' requirements, or alternatively impose other sanctions on Resurs Bank. It is likely that the relevant authorities will impose increasingly strict requirements for banks' assessments of credit risk and creditworthiness, which could lead to Resurs Bank being forced to tighten its credit assessment procedures. There is that stricter credit assessment procedures would lead to Resurs Bank being allowed to offer fewer consumers credit and consequently reduce its lending, which would entail a significant risk to Resurs Bank's operating results.

Resurs Bank's credit policies and scoring models might be insufficient to prevent Resurs Bank from incurring increased credit losses due to external factors beyond Resurs Bank's control, for example a deterioration in macroeconomic conditions. Loan applicants who are deemed to be creditworthy according to Resurs Bank's scoring models at the time of the loan application may, due to personal circumstances or other factors, have a reduced creditworthiness. For example, during periods of economic downturn or recession, Resurs Bank may experience an increase in loans that are subject to debt collection measures and a higher frequency of, and greater, credit losses in the existing loan portfolio, since the ability of customers to repay their loans may have deteriorated significantly. If the credit loss levels increase in the future, this would increase Resurs Bank's risk costs. The degree to which the risks related to failed assessments of the credit risk and creditworthiness of loan applicants and customers may affect Resurs Bank is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to the Issuer's loss levels and results of operations.

Resurs is exposed to counterparty risks, among other things due to actual or perceived deterioration of companies within the finance sector or on the market for financial services

Resurs generally carries out transactions with a number of different counterparties operating on the financial services market. Such transactions may include the deposit of cash funds on accounts with banks as well as investments in securities and derivative transactions with banks. The deposits which Resurs makes with other banks are not covered by any state deposit insurance scheme, and as a result Resurs is exposed to the risk of one or more such institutions being unable to meet its obligations to repay such deposits, for example as a consequence of a bank crisis.

Due to the high level of mutual dependence between financial institutions, Resurs is exposed to the risk of a deterioration in the commercial and financial strength of other financial institutions, or such being perceived as having deteriorated. If an institution on the financial services market defaults, this may also lead to default by other institutions. Uncertainty about an institution or default by it may lead to significant liquidity problems and losses or the failure of other institutions, since the commercial and financial strength of institutions may be closely intertwined as a consequence of their loans, transactions, clearing or other circumstances. Perceived lack of creditworthiness or question marks concerning a counterparty may also lead to liquidity problems for the entire market as well as increased funding costs and losses. If materialised, this risk would have an adverse effect on Resurs and other financial intermediaries, such as clearing institutions and clearing banks, banks, securities institutions and trading venues with which Resurs interacts. The degree to which the counterparty risk described above may affect Resurs is difficult to predict and therefore presents a highly significant risk to the Issuer's business and financial position.

Resurs Bank relies on cooperation with retail finance partners

Retail finance is a financing solution (in a physical store, e-commerce or a combination of both, i.e. an omnichannel solution) that is usually used for larger purchases, such as durable goods. When the customer chooses the retail finance solution to finance a purchase, the bank pays the store immediately and the customer has the opportunity to make a partial payment to the bank. For Resurs, the average loan within the Retail Finance segment (a part of the business segment Payment Solutions) was approximately SEK 2,000, as of 31 December 2022. Accordingly, for this type of operations, Resurs is dependent on its retail finance partners for generating most of Resurs's revenues that are generated in connection with its retail finance business and a significant portion of its consumer data for its internal database, which, normally, are renewed on an annual basis. Due to residual effects from the spread of the corona virus, some of Resurs's retail finance partners are still negatively effected, which in turn risks having a negative impact on Resurs's income from the retail finance area. A significant portion of the consumer data contained in Resurs's internal database, which is usually renewed every year, also originates from the retail finance area.

If an important retail finance partner were to choose to discontinue or reduce the scope of its business relationship with Resurs Bank, there is a risk that Resurs Bank will be unable to replace the business relationship with another business relationship of the same size and value and on similar terms, or at all. This could, in turn, result in a deteriorated market position for Resurs Bank. In addition, some of the agreements that Resurs Bank enters into with its retail finance partners are not exclusive, and accordingly, such partners may choose to work with other lenders. This may exacerbate the effect of increased competition and lead to business losses, since Resurs may not become the primary choice for consumers.

In 2022, the retail finance category of the Nordic consumer market accounted for approximately SEK 97 billion (based on estimates made by Resurs), thus representing an important part of Resurs's operations. Accordingly, if Resurs Bank is not able to maintain, replace or renew relations with retail finance partners, its ability to successfully compete would be tarnished. The degree to which risks relating to retail finance partners may materialise is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk for the Issuer's revenue and results of operations.

The risk of failure or interruption to the Issuer's IT and other systems

Resurs's business is dependent on the ability to keep a large amount of customer information, other confidential information and to process a large number of transactions as well as on internal and external systems for its loan distribution. For example, Resurs's customer database with approximately 6.0 million customers serves as a hub generating significant opportunities for cross-selling offerings such as credit cards, consumer loans and insurance products and is thus very important for Resurs's operations. Accordingly, should Resurs for any reason lose information in its customer database due to disruptions in Resurs's IT infrastructure, its operations would be seriously tarnished. Such disruptions may, for example, be caused by internal factors such as larger projects for replacing or upgrading existing IT platforms and/or systems, which, if replaced or upgraded inappropriately, risks resulting in IT platforms and/or systems that do not function as expected and result in, among other things, unreliable data processing with impact on financial reporting. There is also a risk for disruptions caused by external factors such as the availability of experts required for technical support or completion of ongoing projects. Any errors, outages or infringement in Resurs's IT platforms and security may damage Resurs's reputation, disrupt relations with Resurs's customers and retail finance partners.

To some extent, the Subsidiaries of Resurs currently, or may in the future, use different IT platforms, databases and other systems. These systems are not fully compatible, which may lead to discrepancies and/or problems regarding future consolidation or integration of these platforms, databases and other systems. There is a risk that Resurs will fail to consolidate or integrate these components within all operations, including any acquired customer information databases, which might substantially weaken Resurs's possibility to focus on suitable customers, correctly assess credit risks and also detrimentally affect Resurs's ability to conduct business in general (for instance the ability to manage loan applications, incoming and outgoing payments and credit assessments), which could result in a loss of customers. Since Resurs has no physical branch offices for customers, Resurs is reliant upon the IT and telecommunications systems to work properly in order to communicate with its customers. Furthermore, there is a risk of delays in the implementation of new IT systems, which can result in more expensive implementation costs and delays in the realisation of benefits.

IT and telecommunications technology are developing rapidly and are characterised by short product life cycles. There is a risk that Resurs fails to foresee, manage or implement technical changes at all or fast enough, that there are too many development-related disturbances in daily operations and that the lifecycle management of other support systems are lagging behind, which may lead to additional costs. Accordingly, this accentuates the IT-related risks and thus further increase the negative outcomes. The degree to which IT failures may affect the Issuer is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to the Issuer's operations.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is primarily defined as a risk of net interest income decreasing due to disadvantageous market interest rates. Interest rate risk normally arises as a result of companies having different maturities or fixed interest terms for their assets and liabilities. Interest rate risk increases if the terms for assets deviate from the terms for liabilities. Interest rate risk mainly affects companies in the form of gradual changes in net interest income, which can thus affect operating income and both short and long-term capital ratios. Most of Resurs's interest rate risks are structural and arise within Resurs's banking operations where fixed interest terms for assets and liabilities do not match. Resurs strives to ensure sound matching between fixed and variable interest rates, for example by changing the terms of new loans. There is, however, a risk of Resurs failing to match fixed and variable interest rates.

Furthermore, changes in interest rate levels, yield curves and differences between various interest rates may affect Resurs Bank's interest rate margin between its lending and funding. Resurs Bank is exposed to differences between the interest paid to deposit customers, or to Resurs Bank's other sources of financing, and the interest which Resurs Bank charges the customers for its products. There is a risk that Resurs Bank will be unable to adjust the interest rate on such assets and liabilities. For example, crises, pandemics, geopolitical disruptions or other events may cause interest rates to become more volatile, which may increase the impact of different lengths of fixed interest rates on assets and liabilities.

In addition, there is a risk that interest rates on Resurs Bank's markets will increase sharply or that the interest rate environment on Resurs Bank's markets will fail to remain favourable during future reporting periods. An environment of higher rates might lead to reduced demand for Resurs Bank's loan and credit products, since the willingness and possibility to borrow money is reduced when interest rates are higher. Higher interest rates can also lead to higher rates for existing customers, which may affect their ability to repay their loans and credits and, consequently, lead to an increased number of loans that are subject to collection measures. A volatile rate or an expectation of interest rate increases can also lead to customers preferring fixed interest loans.

In calculation of a one (1) percentage-point change in the market interest rate, the Issuer's net interest income for the next 12 months would increase/decrease by SEK 61 million, based on interest-bearing assets and liabilities, as of 31 December 2022. A one (1) percentage point parallel shift in the yield curve and by applying the discounted future cash flow, interest rate risk on equity on the closing date was +/- SEK 105 million. Interest rate risks thus present a highly significant risk to Resurs's cost levels, financial position and results of operations.

Resurs is exposed to currency fluctuations

Exchange rate risk is the risk that the value of assets and liabilities, including derivatives, may vary due to exchange rate fluctuations or other relevant risk factors. Changes in exchange rates between SEK (Resurs's reporting currency and the currency in which its own funds are denominated), NOK, EUR and DKK affect Resurs's results of operations and capital position. Resurs's loan portfolio comprises loans in SEK, NOK, DKK and EUR and financing can take place in these, but also other, currencies (such as GBP and USD). There are differences between loaned amounts and financed amounts in the various currencies. The most significant effect of currency fluctuations arises when assets and liabilities in a foreign currency are to be translated to SEK (Resurs's reporting currency). In addition, Resurs is exposed to currency risks referring to the exchange rate risk associated with the time delay between entering into a contract and settling it, i.e. the transaction risk.

Resurs uses derivative instruments in accordance with derivatives agreements to mitigate the effects of such currency fluctuations. There is, however, a risk of Resurs failing to match assets and liabilities in the same currency. Resurs manages its exposures to foreign currencies by regularly entering into currency swap contracts. There is also a risk that a counterparty will be unwilling to enter into new currency swap contracts in the future or that the costs for hedging currency exposure will increase and that such hedging cannot take place on reasonable terms for Resurs. For example, the risk of currency fluctuations with respect to Resurs's current securitisation, where the assets are denominated in SEK and the ultimate financing takes place in USD, is borne by Resurs, entailing that the costs are primarily affected by relative interest rate changes between Sweden and the US. Since certain loan products offered by Resurs also have a term to maturity in excess of six months, Resurs is exposed to currency risks attributable to its products, where short-term currency swap contracts can expire prior to maturity or repayment of respective obligations.

As of 31 December 2022, a 5 per cent fluctuation between SEK and the respective currencies listed below would have the following effect on comprehensive income of the year before tax:

- DKK: -456 KSEK
- EUR: -8 539 KSEK
- NOK: 3 196 KSEK

Currency fluctuations tend to be unpredictable and difficult to foresee, since they are determined by a large number of factors. The degree to which currency fluctuations may vary is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to Resurs's financial position, results of operations and capital adequacy requirements position.

Resurs Bank's actual credit losses may exceed the provisions made for credit losses and write-downs

Resurs Bank uses various calculation models, based on analysis and modelling of historical data with respect to loan performance, to assess which provisions must be made for credit losses and write-downs. There is a risk that Resurs Bank's analyses and models will fail to correctly foresee the actual amount which may be claimed back or the timeframe for recovering due loans. The recovery value and timeframe for recovery are affected by a number of different factors, including macroeconomic conditions, previous results from external debt collection agencies and the age of the loan portfolio. For example, the recovery value falls and the credit quality deteriorates as the terms to maturity in the portfolio expires. If Resurs Bank fails to correctly calculate the recovery value of written-down loans, its credit losses may increase.

Resurs Bank is dependent to a significant extent on external debt collection agencies in order to collect outstanding amounts on overdue loans. There is a risk that external debt collection agencies will fail to perform as expected, or at all, and that Resurs Bank's historical data regarding collected amounts is not indicative of future results. The success achieved by such external debt collection agencies may affect Resurs Bank's ability to collect its loans, and the timeframe for collection, loans that are subject to debt collection measures and, in turn, Resurs Bank's historical data with respect to loan performance, which may affect Resurs Bank's calculation models for assessing provisions and write-downs. If Resurs Bank's external debt collection agencies fail to perform as expected, this may have an adverse effect on Resurs Bank's ability to calculate the recovery value of loans, which may lead to unforeseen increases in credit losses.

Furthermore there is a risk that regulatory authorities could deem that securitisation of non-performing loans ("NPL's") carried out by the Group do not meet, or no longer meets, the regulatory requirements for significant risk transfer pursuant to Article 244 of Regulation (EU) 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013. Such non-compliance could lead to a forced divestment of the NPL's by the special purpose vehicles holding such assets (the "SPV's"), which in turn could lead to increased credit losses should Resurs Bank as senior lender to the SPV's not get paid in full.

Since provisions for credit losses are estimates, there is a risk that the actual credit losses will significantly exceed the provisions made to cover such losses. For example, changes in economic circumstances of customers and other factors, both within and beyond the control of Resurs Bank, including regulatory changes, may require Resurs Bank to increase its provisions for credit losses, particularly if any such change leads to extended time periods as to when due accounts can be collected. There is a risk that Resurs Bank will make insufficient provisions and that Resurs Bank will experience increased credit losses if its customers utilise the entire credit amount granted by Resurs Bank. The degree to which the risks related to the ratio between actual credit losses and provisions made for credit losses and write-downs may affect Resurs Bank is uncertain and presents a significant risk to the Issuer.

Resurs is exposed to risks related to key individuals, temporary personnel and other service providers

Resurs's performance and future growth depend on the work performed as well as the know-how of Resurs's employees, temporary personnel and service providers. Resurs's continued ability to compete effectively and to develop new areas depends on Resurs's ability to attract new employees and maintain and motivate existing employees, temporary personnel and service providers. Key individuals with whom there is no non-compete clause or similar provision in their employment, service or cooperation agreements may come to work for direct competitors of Resurs immediately after having left Resurs. In particular, Resurs experiences difficulties to recruit employees within three areas which are important to Resurs: IT, sales and analysis. The degree to which the risk related to the loss of key individuals, temporary personnel and other service providers and recruiting difficulties may affect Resurs is uncertain and presents a significant risk to Resurs's ability to compete effectively, develop its business and generate profit.

Resurs is exposed to risks related to Resurs Bank's credit rating

As of the date of this Prospectus, Resurs Bank is rated BBB (long-term) and N3 (short-term) by Nordic Credit Rating AS (“Nordic Credit Rating”). Nordic Credit Rating is established in the European Union and is registered under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (as amended) (the “CRA Regulation”). Since Resurs Bank is dependent upon the debt capital markets as a source of debt capital, any downgrade of Resurs Bank's credit ratings is likely to increase Resurs Bank's borrowing costs, adversely affect its liquidity position, limit its access to the debt capital markets, undermine confidence in and the competitive position of Resurs Bank, trigger obligations under certain bilateral terms in some of its trading and collateralised financing contracts, including requiring the provision of additional collateral or the replacement of Resurs Bank with another counterparty, and/or limit the range of counterparties willing to enter into transactions with Resurs Bank. The degree to which the risks related to a potential downgrade of Resurs Bank's credit rating may affect Resurs Bank is uncertain and presents a significant risk to the Issuer's financial position.

RISKS RELATED TO REGULATION

Risks relating to regulatory requirements and regulatory changes

Resurs's operations are highly regulated and subject to legislation, regulations, codes of conduct and decisions by authorities in the jurisdictions in which it conducts business and in relation to the products it markets and sells. Regulatory authorities have broad jurisdiction over many aspects of Resurs's business, marketing and selling practices, advertising and terms of business. The Issuer's subsidiary Resurs Bank conducts heavily regulated activities and is under the supervision of, for instance, the Swedish FSA. Hence, Resurs is obliged to comply with regulations concerning the manner in which banking business is to be conducted, money laundering, processing of personal data, payment and payment services, consumer credits, capital adequacy requirements, reporting and regulatory compliance. All of these areas are subject to changes over time, and compliance with them may, from time to time, lead to significant expenses. In addition, these local rules, ordinances and administrative provisions may differ significantly from one jurisdiction to another and measures which have been taken to comply with rules in one jurisdiction may be insufficient for compliance with rules in another jurisdiction. The key pieces of legislation, regulation, guidelines and decisions by authorities are further described below.

The Payment Services Directive

For instance, the Payment Services Directive (“PSD 2”) (Directive (EU) 2015/2366), which imposes strong consumer protection, has entailed major changes for Resurs. PSD 2 stipulates that a financial entity is now obliged to provide account information to another financial entity. This means that customers have the right to receive their personal data from their bank in a format that is easy for another financial entity to input and process. PSD 2 also requires stronger identity checks of users when they are paying online. Although hard to predict, there is a risk that PSD 2 will change the payments value chain, since it will enable customers to use for instance social media platforms or messaging apps to pay bills. There is a risk that Resurs will be unable to adapt to the potentially new market landscape, which could, in turn, make it harder to attract customers. There is also a risk that Resurs Bank's measures to comply with the rules in PSD 2 are insufficient. The Swedish Government has recently commissioned the Swedish FSA to report on the supervision of payment service providers' application of the anti-fraud provisions in the Payment Services Act (lagen (2010:751) om betaltjänster). The Swedish FSA shall provide its report to the Swedish Ministry of Finance no later than 31 May 2024.

EBA and Swedish FSA guidelines

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) has issued guidelines that impose stricter requirements on banks in managing risk culture, particularly with regard to credit risk, which affects the internal governance of Resurs Bank. In 2023, the Swedish FSA issued new general guidelines on credit in consumer relationships (FFFS 2023:20) that replaced the previous general guidelines (FFFS 2021:29). The new guidelines entered into force on 1 September 2023 and largely correspond to the EBA guidelines. The new guidelines contain some additions and amendments in the parts relating to the application of the provisions on good lending practices and credit assessment.

Finnish regulation

As mentioned, Resurs's operations are subject to regulation in all jurisdictions where Resurs operates. For example, Resurs Bank's operations are affected by the statutory interest rate cap in Finland (15 per cent plus a reference interest published by the Bank of Finland biannually) applicable from 1 October 2023. Furthermore, there are limited opportunities in Finland for lenders to charge consumer fees in respect of credit costs other than interest. In addition, stricter rules on marketing of consumer credit in Finland were imposed from 1 October 2023. Although the effects of the new legislation are not yet completely noticeable, there is a risk that the regulation will have a negative impact on Resurs's interest rate level and ability to offer consumer credit. Such effects could have a negative impact on Resurs's loan portfolio, revenue and results of operations.

Norwegian regulation

In addition, the Norwegian bank lending regulation, utlånsforskriften, imposes restrictions on Resurs Bank's ability to offer consumer loans. Under the regulation banks may not grant loans to consumers whose debt exceeds five times their annual income. Furthermore, consumer loans which are to be repaid with instalment payments cannot have a term longer than five years. When assessing a borrower's servicing ability, the lender must factor in an interest rate increase of at least five percentage points from the prevailing level of interest on the consumer's overall debt. Furthermore, when assessing a borrower's servicing ability, lenders must anticipate an interest rate increase of at least three (3) percentage points from the prevailing interest rate on the consumer's total debt, or an interest rate of seven (7) percent, whichever is higher. From 1 July 2023, the regulation also applies to loans to consumers with collateral other than housing, such as car and boat loans. The new regulation has affected the consumers' possibility to take loans, which has negatively affected and may further negatively affect the size of Resurs' loan portfolio, revenue and results of operations.

The Mortgage Credit Directive (2014/17/EU) (the "MCD") is implemented in Norway through both public and private law. The private law part was implemented through a new Norwegian Financial Contracts Act that entered into force on 1 January 2023. The Act contains a number of consumer protection provisions, including liability for the bank for losses resulting from the bank's failure to comply with its general obligations or from the misuse of electronic signatures and the obligation for banks to refuse certain customers. General obligations include, among other things, the obligation to provide guidance, explanations and refusals, as well as requirements for the banks' credit assessment of the consumer. These regulations may lead to a higher threshold for consumers to be granted loans, and reduce Resurs's income. According to the Act, banks that offer deposits must provide cash services, either in-house or through external parties, that enable customers to deposit and withdraw cash. Even if the effects of the legislation are difficult to predict, there is a risk that such a regulatory framework may entail increased costs for Resurs's establishment, operation and maintenance. The public law part of the MCD is implemented through the Norwegian Act on Credit Intermediation, which entered into force on 1 July 2023. The Act is not directly applicable to Resurs Bank, but may nevertheless have an indirect effect since the agent channel is a central entry point for new loan customers. The new agent regulations mean that financial agents and other intermediation activities will be subject to a common and uniform regulation that will entail general rules for agents such as a registration requirement, which may reduce the number of agents. Increased requirements on agents therefore risk affecting Resurs Bank's ability to maintain or increase its loan portfolio in Norway.

Danish regulation and decision from Finanstilsynet

On 15 March 2023, the Danish government presented a legislative proposal, among other things, that interest-free and cost-free, so called "buy now, pay later" credits ("BNPL credits") shall be subject to the same consumer protection rules as traditional consumer credits. Under the legislation a full credit assessment also has to be carried out in relation to BNPL credits. The adoption of the legislation may affect certain parts of the sales financing market where BNPL credits occur.

In Denmark, Finanstilsynet and Forbrugerombudmanden have issued guidelines on creditworthiness assessment. The guidelines are more stringent than previous practice, for example, they require full documentation of the debtor's finances. In addition, the guidelines require that available amounts be determined on the basis of tariffs, which are set at a higher level than those previously used in the industry. Due to possible non-compliance with the guidelines, Resurs Bank received a decision imposing certain obligations from Finanstilsynet in January 2022. Resurs Bank has appealed the decision and requested that it be annulled, but has in the meantime taken internal measures in accordance with the decision. These measures have had a negative effect on Resurs Bank's lending in Denmark. In May 2022, Forbrugerombudmanden intervened in the appeal submitted by Resurs against Finanstilsynet's decision. As a result, the scope of the case has been extended to include an examination of whether a specific credit assessment carried out by Resurs in relation to a specific customer was compatible with the Danish requirements concerning the credit assessment of consumers. Court hearing in Østre Landsret is scheduled for January 2024.

Upcoming EU regulations

Legislative requirements have increased, the regulatory environment has been becoming increasingly complex and many of the rules are based on EU regulations, which often are implemented at different times with national modifications in the Nordic market. Among other things, the EU's new Consumer Credit Directive (directive 2023/2225/EC replacing directive 2008/48/EC) shall be implemented in the member states national regulation with effect from 20 November 2026 and will have significant consequences for Resurs Bank's operations in general in several areas, including credit assessment, customer information and caps on interest rates and costs. Further, the major EU regulations ”Digital Finance Package”, ”Retail Payments Strategy” and ”AML Package” are also expected to have a major impact on Resurs Bank by 2025. The AML Package is not finalized and has not gone through the EU legislative process and is therefore still subject to change, but it is expected to enter into force in 2024.

Conclusion

The management of business, regulatory and legal risks require, among other things, internal guidelines and policies for the accurate registration and control of a large number of transactions and events. However, there is a risk that such guidelines and policies are not always adequate and compliant with applicable regulations. Non-compliance with, as well as deficiencies in, guidelines and policies for risk management that leads to negative publicity or criticism from the Swedish FSA or other regulators within the financial sector would thus have a material adverse effect on Resurs’s reputation, which is likely to adversely affect demand for loans offered by the Resurs Bank. Furthermore, any non-compliance that would lead to fines from the Swedish FSA or other regulators require Resurs to pay amounts (which may be significant) and take measures to ensure compliance.

Regulatory changes risk having a material adverse effect on, among other things, Resurs’s product range and activities, the sales and pricing of Resurs’s products, as well as Resurs’s profitability and capital adequacy, and can give rise to increased costs of compliance. In addition, there is a risk that Resurs misinterprets or misapplies new or amended laws and regulations, especially due to the increasing quantity and complexity of legislation, which, in case of significant misinterpretations, would lead to adverse consequences for Resurs. Resurs incurs, and expects to continue to incur, significant costs and expenditures, to comply with the increasingly complex regulatory environment. The degree to which Resurs is unable able to effectively manage these legal and regulatory risks is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk for Resurs’s business, financial condition and results of operations.

Regulatory capital and liquidity requirements

Resurs Bank is in its capacity as bank subject to capital adequacy and liquidity regulations. Regulations which have impacted Resurs Bank and are expected to continue to impact Resurs Bank include, among others, the Basel III framework, the EU Capital Requirements Directive 2013/36/EU (“CRD IV”), as amended by Directive (EU) 2019/878 (“CRD V”), and the EU Capital Requirements Regulation 11(99) (EU) No. 575/2013 (“CRR”), as amended by Regulation (EU) 2019/876 (“CRR II”) and as amended by (EU) 2020/873. In addition CRR and CRD IV, together the “Basel III regulations”, are supported by a set of binding technical standards developed by EBA.

The capital adequacy framework includes, inter alia, minimum capital requirements for the components in the capital base with the highest quality, common equity tier 1 (“CET1”) capital, additional tier 1 capital and tier 2 capital. CRR II also introduces a net stable funding requirement, a binding leverage ratio requirement (i.e. a capital requirement independent from the riskiness of the exposures, as a backstop to risk-weighted capital requirements) for all institutions subject to CRR. In addition to the minimum capital requirements, CRD IV provides for further capital buffer requirements that are required to be satisfied with CET1 capital. Certain buffers may be applicable to Resurs Bank as determined by the Swedish FSA. A breach of the combined buffer requirements is likely to result in restrictions on certain discretionary capital distributions by Resurs Bank for example, dividend and coupon payments on CET1 and tier 1 capital instruments. However, Resurs Bank is currently not considered a systemically important institution and is thus not subject to the buffer requirement for systemically important institutions nor subject to the systemic risk buffer requirements. There can, however, be no assurance that Resurs Bank will not be designated a systemically important institution or subject to systemic risk buffer requirements in the future.

The conditions of Resurs Bank’s business as well as external conditions are constantly changing and the full set of capital adequacy rules applicable to Swedish financial institutions continues to evolve. For example, the Group may from time to time enter into various securitisation transactions relating to NPL’s and unforeseen events linked to such securitisation of NPL’s (such as a securitisation transactions being deemed non-compliant with the regulatory requirements for significant risk transfer) may have a negative effect on the Group’s regulatory capital. For the foregoing reasons, Resurs Bank and/or the Resurs Consolidated Situation (as defined in the Terms and Conditions) can be required to raise regulatory capital in the future. Such capital, whether in the form of debt financing, hybrid capital or additional equity, is not always available on attractive terms, or at all.

Serious or systematic deviations by Resurs Bank from the above regulations would most likely lead to the Swedish FSA determining that Resurs Bank’s business does not satisfy the statutory soundness requirement for credit institutions and thus result in the Swedish FSA imposing sanctions on Resurs Bank. Further, any increase in the capital and liquidity requirements could have a negative effect on Resurs Bank's liquidity (should its revenue streams not cover continuous payment to be made under its issued capital), funding (should it not be able to raise funding on attractive terms, or at all), financial condition (should liquidity and funding be negatively affected) and results of operations (should its costs increase). The degree to which regulatory capital and liquidity requirements risks may affect Resurs Bank is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to Resurs's funding and liquidity position.

EU General Data Protection Regulation

As a financial group aimed primarily at individuals, the Resurs Group processes large quantities of personal data on its customers (for example, a customer database of more than 6 million private customers in the Nordics). Such processing of personal data is subject to extensive regulation and scrutiny following the implementation of the general data protection regulation 2016/679/EU ("GDPR"), applicable, as of 25 May 2018. Efforts to continuously ensure compliance with the GDPR is time-consuming and costly, and for example, a new function of Data Protection Officer (DPO) has been set up in order to ensure compliance with GDPR. Any administrative and monetary sanctions (including administrative fines of up to the greater of EUR 20 million or 4 per cent. of the Resurs Group's total global annual turnover) or reputational damage due to incorrect implementation or breach of the GDPR would adversely impact the Resurs Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. The degree to which non-compliance with applicable requirements may affect the Issuer is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to Resurs's operations and reputation.

Risks related to anti-money laundering, trade sanctions and anti-corruption

Criminal activity within the banking industry, in which the Resurs Group operates, has been increasingly uncovered in recent years. As a bank, Resurs Bank is subject to a regulatory framework which requires Resurs to take measures to among other things counteract money laundering and terrorist financing as well as comply with trade sanctions laws and anti-corruption laws within its operations. There is a risk that Resurs's procedures, internal control functions and guidelines to counteract money laundering and terrorist financing and ensure compliance with trade sanctions laws and anti-corruption laws are not sufficient or adequate to ensure that Resurs complies with the regulatory framework. This may result from, for example, insufficient procedures, internal control functions or guidelines, or errors by employees, suppliers or counterparties.

Failure to comply with such regulatory framework is likely to result in legal implications, including remarks or warnings and/or significant administrative fines imposed by the Swedish FSA or other regulatory bodies, which could cause significant, and potentially irreparable, damage to the reputation of the Resurs Group and, as a result, the Resurs Group's business (should the demand for its products and services decrease), financial condition (should the value of its assets decrease) and results of operations (should its revenue decrease and/or its costs increase) could be materially adversely affected. The degree to which non-compliance with for instance anti-money laundering laws, trade sanctions laws and anti-corruption regulation may affect Resurs is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to the Issuer's reputation, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks relating to changes in accounting standards

From time to time, amendments take place to standards issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") and/or EU provisions in IFRS-EU, which govern the preparation of Resurs's accounts. These amendments are sometimes difficult to foresee and could materially affect the manner in which Resurs books and reports its financial position and its results of operations. In certain cases, Resurs may be forced to apply new or revised standards retroactively, which may involve recalculation of financial reporting from earlier periods.

The impairment requirements according to IFRS 9 – Financial Instruments: Reporting and Assessment ("IFRS 9") entailed, in 2018, a non-recurring effect of SEK 439 million regarding total reserves and provisions for items in and off the balance sheet. Equity declined by SEK 339 million after consideration of tax. Recognition and measurement of financial instruments as regulated in IFRS 9 is a complex area with significant impact on Resurs's business and financial reporting. IFRS 9 is an intricate accounting standard which requires significant judgment to determine the loan loss provision. The impact from the inherent uncertainty and subjectivity involved in assessing loan loss provisions, as well as the extensive disclosures required under IFRS 9 means that the IFRS 9 transition presents a significant risk for Resurs. There is a risk that new equity capital or debt financing qualifying as regulatory capital will not be available on attractive terms, or at all. IASB may make other amendments to accounting and reporting standards that govern the preparation of Resurs's financial reporting. Resurs may be required to apply such amendments, or it may apply them prematurely, if it so deems appropriate. Resurs believes that the calculations of credit loss reserves under IFRS 9 will entail greater volatility in the credit loss line of the income statement, given that the calculation of the credit loss provision according to IFRS 9 is calculated on expected credit losses as opposed to the previous model that was based on credit losses incurred.

The degree to which changes in accounting standards may affect Resurs is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to the Issuer's costs for regulatory capital and consequently to the Issuer's financial position.

Compliance with and changes in tax legislation

Resurs primarily conducts business in the Nordic countries. In 2023, Resurs Group's total tax expenses amounted to SEK 131 million. Consequently, tax expenses represent a significant part of the Group's total costs (approximately ten (10) per cent). Business operations, including intra-group transactions, are conducted based on Resurs's understanding and interpretation of applicable tax laws, tax treaties, regulations, case law and requirements imposed by the relevant tax authorities. There is a risk that Resurs's interpretation of applicable laws, tax treaties, regulations, case law or other rules or administrative practice is not correct and not in line with the interpretations of relevant tax authorities (particularly in the case of intra-group transactions involving several countries and transfer pricing rules), or that such rules or practice will change, possibly with retroactive effect. Resurs's tax situation as regards previous years and the current year may thus change due to decisions by relevant authorities or due to changes in the aforementioned laws, treaties or provisions. Such decisions or supplements, possibly with retroactive effect, may have a material adverse effect on Resurs's results of operations and financial position.

For instance, on 1 January 2022, a new tax was introduced in Sweden for credit institutions whose liabilities amount to a fixed threshold at the beginning of the tax year. The threshold for 2023 is set at SEK 150 billion and the size of the tax is 0.06 percent of the tax base. At present, this tax does not affect Resurs Bank, whose liabilities fall below the threshold for 2023. However, this may change in the future and Resurs Bank may be subject to this new tax, which would then lead to increased tax costs.

Furthermore, on 18 February 2020, the Council of the European Union adopted a new directive aimed at making it easier for European tax authorities to detect tax fraud in cross-border e-commerce transactions. The new rules, which must be implemented in national legislation by 31 December 2023 and apply from 1 January 2024, will include an obligation for payment service providers to, on quarterly basis, report information on payees using the provider's payment services and the cross-border payments that these payees receive from actors within the EU. The new legislation will probably mean that Resurs Bank, as a payment service provider, will need to adapt its systems to be able to store all relevant information and that Resurs Bank's administrative costs will increase.

The degree to which the above-mentioned tax related risks may affect Resurs is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to Resurs's costs and consequently to the Issuer's costs, financial position and results of operations.

The Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive

As a bank and a financial institution, the Issuer is subject to the Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive (2014/59/EU) ("BRRD"), which was amended by Directive (EU) 2019/879 ("BRRD II") on 27 June 2019. The BRRD legislative package establishes a framework for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and, inter alia, requires EU credit institutions (such as the Issuer) to produce and maintain recovery plans setting out the arrangements that are to be taken to restore the long-term viability of the institution in the event of a material deterioration of its financial condition. Accordingly, the requirements under the BRRD are comprehensive, and require the Issuer to take extensive measures to ensure compliance.

The BRRD contains a number of resolution tools and powers which may be applied by the resolution authority (in Sweden, the Swedish National Debt Office (Riksgäldskontoret)) upon certain conditions for resolution being fulfilled. These tools and powers (used alone or in combination) include, inter alia, a general power to write-down all or a portion of the principal amount of, or interest on, certain eligible liabilities (including Additional Tier 1 Capital instruments), whether subordinated or unsubordinated, of the institution in resolution and/or to convert certain unsecured debt claims including senior notes and subordinated notes into other securities, including CET1 instruments of the surviving entity, which equity could also be subject to any further application of the general bail-in tool. This means that most of such failing institution's debt (including, in the case of the Issuer, the Notes) could be subject to bail-in, except for certain classes of debt, such as certain deposits and secured liabilities. In addition to the general bail-in tool, the BRRD provides for relevant authorities to have the power, before any other resolution action is taken, to permanently write-down or convert into equity relevant capital instruments (such as the Notes) at the point of non-viability. Ultimately, the authority has the power to take control of a failing institution and, for example, transfer the institution to a private purchaser or to a publicly controlled entity pending a private sector arrangement. All these actions can be taken without any prior shareholder approval.

The BRRD has been implemented in Swedish law mainly through the Act on Resolution (lagen (2016:1016) om resolution) and the Act on Preventive State Aid to Credit Institutions (lagen (2015:1017) om förebyggande statligt stöd till kreditinstitut), but also through amendments to certain existing legislation. It is not possible to predict exactly how the powers and tools of the Swedish National Debt Office provided in the BRRD (as implemented into Swedish law) will affect the Issuer and Resurs, or the Noteholders. However, the powers and tools given to the Swedish National Debt Office are numerous and the exercise of any of those powers or any suggestion of such exercise would, therefore, materially adversely affect the rights of Noteholders (should the Notes be written-down or converted to other securities as set out above), the price or value of the Notes (should the secondary market not trade the Notes at their nominal amount) and/or the ability of the Issuer to satisfy its obligations under the Notes (should the resolution authority take control over the Issuer in certain scenarios). The degree to which amendments to BRRD or application of BRRD may affect the Issuer is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to the Issuer's funding and compliance costs.

Resurs Bank may be adversely affected by changes to legislation concerning debt collection operations, debt reconstruction and personal bankruptcy

Resurs's possibilities to collect loans that have been written off depend primarily on the efficacy of the legal debt collection system, including laws regarding debt collection business, debt reconstruction and personal bankruptcy in those countries in which business is conducted. Debt collection depends also to a certain extent on the commitment and efficiency of Resurs's external debt collection agencies. Resurs's ability to collect due loans may, in particular, be adversely affected by changes to laws regarding debt reconstruction and personal bankruptcy if, for example, other creditors are given priority over private lenders in the case of debt reconstruction or bankruptcy. In addition, Resurs's business would also be adversely affected by legislative changes regarding limitations periods for claims. There is a risk of the limitation period for claims being shortened, or that the possibility for the extension of the limitations period might be restricted or abolished in those countries in which Resurs conducts business, which might adversely affect Resurs's ability to collect loans that are subject to debt collection measures or doubtful loans. Changes to provisions which affect Resurs's ability to collect loans that are subject to debt collection measures or doubtful loans may have a material adverse effect on Resurs's credit loss level and results of operations. The degree to which the aforementioned legislation changes may affect Resurs is uncertain and presents a significant risk to the Issuer's cost levels and results of operations.

RISKS RELATING TO THE NOTES

Structural risks relating to the Notes

The Issuer's obligations under the Notes are deeply subordinated

The Notes are intended to constitute unsecured, deeply subordinated obligations of the Issuer and the Consolidated Situation. In the event of the voluntary or involuntary liquidation (likvidation) or bankruptcy (konkurs) of the Issuer, the rights of the Noteholders to payments on or in respect of (including any damages awarded for breach of any obligations under) the Notes (which in the case of any payment of principal shall be to payment of the then Nominal Amount only) shall at all times rank junior to any present and future claims of (i) depositors of the Issuer, (ii) any other unsubordinated creditors of the Issuer, (iii) any senior non-preferred creditors falling within the scope of the first paragraph of Section 18 of the Swedish Rights of Priority Act (förmånsrättslagen (1970:979)), and (iv) any subordinated creditors, including for the avoidance of doubt holders of any instruments which as at their respective issue dates constitute or constituted Tier 2 Capital.

In the event of the voluntary or involuntary liquidation or bankruptcy of the Issuer, there is a risk that the Issuer does not have enough assets remaining after payments to senior ranking creditors to pay amounts due under the Notes. No Noteholder who is indebted to the Issuer shall be entitled to exercise any right of set-off or counterclaim against moneys owed by the Issuer in respect of Notes held by such Noteholder.

As a result of the above, there is a risk that the Noteholders will lose some or all of their investment in the Notes. Although the Notes may pay a higher rate of interest than comparable notes which are not subordinated or which are subordinated but not so deeply, there is a significant risk that an investor in the Notes will lose all or some of its investment in the event of a voluntary or involuntary liquidation or bankruptcy of the Issuer. Accordingly, in a worst-case scenario, the value of the Notes may be reduced to zero.

As noted in the risk factors "The Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive" above and "Loss absorption at the point of non-viability of the Issuer" below, there is a risk of the Notes being written down or converted into other securities in a resolution scenario or at the point of non-viability of the Issuer.

Structural subordination and dependence on upstreaming of funds

The Issuer is a holding company and the proceeds from the issue of the Notes will be contributed to Resurs Bank as an unconditional shareholders' contribution. Resurs's business is conducted by the Issuer's Subsidiaries and the Issuer is reliant on the financial performance of these Subsidiaries and their ability to make dividend distributions and other payments, to enable it to meet its payment obligations (including making payments under the Notes). All Subsidiaries are legally separate and distinct from the Issuer and have no obligation to pay amounts due with respect to the Issuer's obligations and commitments or to make funds available for such payments. No present or future Subsidiary, or other member of the Resurs Group will guarantee or provide any security for the Issuer's obligations under the Notes. Accordingly, there is a risk that the Subsidiaries will not be able or willing to contribute funds to the Issuer, which risks leading to the Issuer being unable to fulfil its obligations under the Notes, thus presenting a significant risk to the Noteholders.

Interest payments on the Notes may be cancelled by the Issuer

Any payment of Interest in respect of the Notes shall be payable only out of the Issuer's Distributable Items and (i) may be cancelled, at any time, in whole or in part, at the option of the Issuer in its sole discretion and notwithstanding that it has Distributable Items or that it may make any distributions pursuant to the Applicable Banking Regulations, or (ii) will be mandatorily cancelled if and to the extent so required by the Applicable Banking Regulations, including the applicable criteria for Additional Tier 1 Capital instruments.

Any cancellation of Interest (in whole or in part thereof) shall in no way limit or restrict the Issuer from making any payment of interest or equivalent payment or other distribution in connection with any instrument ranking junior to the Notes (including, without limitation, any CET1 capital) of the Issuer or in respect of any other Additional Tier 1 Capital instruments. In addition, the Issuer may without restriction use funds that could have been applied to make such cancelled payments to meet its other obligations as they become due.

As a result of the above, there is a risk that the payment of Interest is cancelled, which would adversely affect the Noteholders. Following any cancellation of interest as described above, Noteholders shall have no right thereto or to receive additional interest or compensation. Furthermore, no cancellation of interest in accordance with the terms of the respective Notes shall constitute a default in payment or otherwise under the Notes or entitle Noteholders to take any action to cause the Issuer to be declared bankrupt or for the liquidation, winding-up or dissolution of the Issuer. Accordingly, in a worst-case scenario, the amount of any Interest may be reduced to zero.

Any actual or anticipated cancellation of interest on the Notes will likely have an adverse effect on the market price of the Notes. In addition, as a result of the interest cancellation provisions of the Notes, the market price of the Notes is likely to be more volatile than the market prices of other debt securities on which interest accrues that are not subject to such cancellation and also more sensitive generally to adverse changes in the Issuer's financial condition.

Loss absorption following a Trigger Event

If at any time the CET1 ratio has fallen below 7.00 per cent. of the Resurs Consolidated Situation, this constitutes a Trigger Event and the Total Nominal Amount of the Notes shall be written down by an amount sufficient to restore the CET1 ratio of the Resurs Consolidated Situation to at least 7.00 per cent., as applicable provided that the Nominal Amount of each Note may not be written down below SEK 1. The write down of the Notes is likely to result in a holder of Notes losing some or all of its investment. Following any such reduction of the Total Nominal Amount, the Issuer may, at its discretion, reinstate in whole or in part the principal amount of the Notes, if certain conditions are met. The Issuer will not in any circumstances be obliged to reinstate in whole or in part the principal amount of the Notes (and any such reinstatement is likely to require unanimous approval at a shareholders' meeting of the Issuer).

The Issuer and/or the Swedish FSA may determine that a Trigger Event has occurred on more than one occasion and the reduced Nominal Amount of each Note may be written down on more than one occasion. Further, during any period when the then Nominal Amount of a Note is less than the initial Nominal Amount, interest will accrue on and the Notes will be redeemed at the reduced Nominal Amount of the Notes.

The Issuer's and/or the Swedish FSA's calculation of the CET1 ratio of the Issuer, and therefore its determination of whether a Trigger Event has occurred, shall be binding on the Noteholders, who shall have no right to challenge the published figures detailing the CET1 ratio of the Issuer and/or the Issuer Consolidated Situation.

Loss absorption at the point of non-viability of the Issuer

The holders of Notes are subject to the risk that the Notes may be required to absorb losses as a result of statutory powers conferred on resolution and competent authorities in Sweden (the Swedish National Debt Office and the Swedish FSA). As noted above in the risk factor “The Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive”, the powers provided to resolution and competent authorities in the BRRD include write-down/conversion powers to ensure that relevant capital instruments (such as the Notes) fully absorb losses at the point of non-viability of the issuing institution in order to allow it to continue as a going concern subject to appropriate restructuring and without entering resolution. As a result, the BRRD contemplates that resolution authorities have the power to require the permanent write-down of such capital instruments (which write-down may be in full) or the conversion of them into CET1 instruments at the point of non-viability and before any other bail-in or resolution tool can be used. Accordingly, in a worst-case scenario, the capital instruments may be written down and the value of the Notes may be reduced to zero.

There is a risk that the application of any non-viability loss absorption measure results in the Noteholders losing some or all of their investment. Any such conversion to equity or write-off of all or part of an investor’s principal (including accrued but unpaid interest) shall not constitute an event of default and any affected holder of Notes will have no further claims in respect of any amount so converted or written off. The exercise of any such power is inherently unpredictable and depends on a number of factors which are outside the Issuer’s control. Any such exercise, or any suggestion that the Notes could be subject to such exercise, would, therefore, materially adversely affect the value of Notes.

The Notes have no maturity and call options are subject to the prior consent of the Swedish FSA

The Notes have no fixed final redemption date and the Noteholders have no rights to call for the redemption of the Notes. The Issuer has the option to, at its own discretion, redeem the Notes five years after they have been issued at any time within the Initial Call Period or any Interest Payment Date falling after the Initial Call Period but the Noteholders should not invest in the Notes with the expectation that such a call will be exercised by the Issuer.

If the Issuer considers it favourable to exercise such a call option, the Issuer must obtain the prior consent of the Swedish FSA. The Swedish FSA may agree to permit such a call, based upon its evaluation of the regulatory capital position of the Issuer and certain other factors at the relevant time. There is therefore a risk that the Issuer will not exercise such a call or that the Swedish FSA will not permit such a call should the Issuer want. The Noteholders may be required to bear the financial risks of an investment in the Notes for an indefinite period of time and there can be no assurance that the Issuer will or may exercise the call option.

The Issuer may redeem the Notes on the occurrence of a Capital Event or Tax Event

The Issuer may in certain circumstances, at its option, but in each case subject to obtaining the prior consent of the Swedish FSA, redeem the respective Notes upon the occurrence of a Capital Event or Tax Event at par together with accrued Interest on any Interest Payment Date.

It should also be noted that the Issuer may redeem the Notes as described above even if (i) the Total Nominal Amount of the relevant Notes has been reduced by means of a write-down in accordance with the relevant Terms and Conditions; and (ii) the principal amount of the relevant Notes has not been fully reinstated to the initial Nominal Amount of the Notes.

There is a risk that the Noteholders will not be able to reinvest the amounts received upon redemption at a rate that will provide the same rate of return as their investments in the Notes.

Substitution or variation of the Notes

Subject to Clause 12.4 (Redemption, substitution or variation upon the occurrence of a Capital Event or Tax Event) of the relevant Terms and Conditions and the prior written permission of the Swedish FSA, the Issuer may, at its option and without the permission or approval of the relevant Noteholders, elect to substitute or vary the terms of all (but not some only) outstanding Notes for, or so that they become or remain, as applicable, Qualifying Securities if a Capital Event or Tax Event occurs.

There is a risk that, due to the particular circumstances of each Noteholder, any Qualifying Security will be less favourable to each Noteholder in all respects or that a particular Noteholder would not make the same determination as the Issuer as to whether the terms of the relevant Qualifying Security are not materially less favourable to Noteholders than the terms of the relevant Notes. The substitution or variation of the Notes may thus lead to changes in the Notes that have effects that are less favourable to the Noteholders. The Issuer bears no responsibility towards the Noteholders for any adverse effects of such substitution or variation (including, without limitation, with respect to any adverse tax consequence suffered by any Noteholder). The degree to which the Notes may be substituted or varied is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to the return of the Notes.

The Issuer is not (and nor is any other Group Company) prohibited from issuing further debt, which may rank pari passu with or senior to the Notes

There is no restriction on the amount or type of debt that the Issuer or a Group Company may issue or incur that ranks senior to, or pari passu with the Notes. There is a risk that the incurrence of any such debt reduces the amount recoverable by Noteholders in the event of the voluntary or involuntary liquidation or bankruptcy of the Issuer, limits the ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations in respect of the respective Notes and results in Noteholders losing all or some of their investment in the Notes. The degree to which other debt that ranks senior to, or pari passu with, the Notes may be issued is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to the amount recoverable by Noteholders.

The Issuer is not (and nor is any other Group Company) prohibited from pledging assets for other debt

There is no restriction on the amount or type of assets that the Issuer or a Group Company can pledge, or otherwise use as security, for other debt. If the Issuer chooses to do so, there is risk that this reduces the amount recoverable by Noteholders in the event of the voluntary or involuntary liquidation or bankruptcy of the Issuer and result in Noteholders losing all or some of their investment in the Notes. The degree to which any other asset pledged may affect the Noteholders is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to the amount recoverable by Noteholders.

Other risks relating to the Notes

Noteholder representation and majority decisions by the Noteholders

Under the Terms and Conditions, the Agent represents each Noteholder in all matters relating to the Notes. The Terms and Conditions contain provisions to the effect that a Noteholder is prohibited from taking actions on its own against the Issuer. To enable the Agent to represent the Noteholders in court, the Noteholders can submit a written power of attorney for legal proceedings. The failure of all Noteholders to submit such a power of attorney is likely to negatively impact the enforcement options available to the Agent on behalf of the Noteholders. Further, under the Terms and Conditions the Agent is entitled in some cases to make decisions and take measures that bind all relevant Noteholders without first obtaining the prior consent of the Noteholders.

Additionally, under the Terms and Conditions certain majorities of Noteholders are entitled to make decisions and take measures that bind all Noteholders, including those who vote in a manner contrary to the majority. Therefore, the actions of the majority and the Agent in such matters impact the Noteholders' rights under the Finance Documents in a manner that is possibly undesirable for some of the Noteholders. The degree to which any such decisions may affect the Noteholders is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk that the actions of the majority and the Agent in such matters can impact the Noteholders' rights under the Finance Documents in a manner that can be undesirable for some of the Noteholders.

European Benchmarks Regulation

In order to ensure the reliability of reference rates (such as STIBOR), legislative action at EU level has been taken. Hence, the so-called Benchmark Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2016 on indexes used as reference values for financial instruments and financial agreements or for measuring investment fund results and amending Directives 2008/48/EC and 2014/17/EU and Regulation (EU) No 596/2014) were added and entered into force on 1 January 2018. The Benchmark Regulation regulates the provision of reference values, reporting of data bases for reference values and use of reference values within the EU. Since the benchmark regulation has only been applied for a short period of time, the effects of it so far are difficult to assess. However, there are future risks that the benchmark regulation affects how certain reference rates are determined and how they are developed. This in conjunction with increased administrative requirements is likely to lead to a reduced number of entities involved in the determination of reference rates, which, in such case, would lead to a certain reference interest ceasing to be published.

The Terms and Conditions provide that the interest rate benchmark STIBOR, which applies for the Notes, can be replaced as set out therein, upon the occurrence of a Base Rate Event which includes if STIBOR ceases to be calculated or administered. Such replacement shall be made in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and is always subject to the Applicable Banking Regulations and the prior written consent of the Swedish FSA. However, there is a risk that such replacement is not made in an effective manner and consequently, if STIBOR ceases to be calculated or administered, an investor in the Notes would be adversely affected. The degree to which amendments to and application of the European Benchmarks Regulation may affect the Noteholders is uncertain and presents a highly significant risk to the return on the Noteholder's investment.

OVERVIEW OF THE NOTES

This section (Overview of the Notes) is only intended to serve as an introduction to the Notes. Any decision to invest in the Notes shall be based on an assessment of all information contained in this Prospectus as well as all documents incorporated herein by reference. The complete terms and conditions of the Notes are found on pages 26-59.

The Notes

The Issuer has issued 240 Notes with a Nominal Amount of SEK 1,250,000 each. The aggregate nominal amount of the Notes is SEK 300,000,000. The Notes are denominated in Swedish kronor.

ISIN code

The Notes have been allocated the ISIN code SE0020998136.

Form of the Notes

The Notes are issued in dematerialised book-entry form and registered on a Securities Account on behalf of the relevant Noteholder. Hence, no physical notes have been issued. The Notes are registered in accordance with the Financial Instruments Accounts Act (lag (1998:1479) om värdepapperscentraler och kontoföring av finansiella instrument) and registration requests relating to the Notes shall be directed to an Account Operator. Clearing and settlement relating to the Notes, as well as payment of Interest and redemption of principal amounts, will be performed within the CSD's account-based system and is reliant on the functioning of such system.

Status of the Notes

The Notes on issue are intended to constitute Additional Tier 1 Capital of the Resurs Consolidated Situation. The Notes will constitute direct, unsecured and subordinated debt liabilities of the Issuer, and the Notes, and all payments in respect of, or arising from (including any damages awarded for breach of any obligations under) the Notes, shall at all times rank:

- (i) pari passu without any preference among themselves;
- (ii) pari passu with (a) any liabilities or capital instruments of the Issuer which constitute Additional Tier 1 Capital and (b) any other liabilities or capital instruments of the Issuer that rank, or are expressed to rank, equally with the Notes, in each case as regards the right to receive periodic payments (to the extent any such periodic payment has not been cancelled) on a liquidation or bankruptcy of the Issuer and the right to receive repayment of capital on a liquidation or bankruptcy of the Issuer;
- (iii) senior to the claims of holders of all classes of the Issuer's shares in their capacity as such holders and any other liabilities or capital instruments of the Issuer that rank, or are expressed to rank, junior to the Notes, in each case as regards the right to receive periodic payments (to the extent any such periodic payment has not been cancelled) on a liquidation or bankruptcy of the Issuer and the right to receive repayment of capital on a liquidation or bankruptcy of the Issuer; and
- (iv) junior to any present and future claims of (a) any unsubordinated creditors of the Issuer and (b) except as expressly stated in (ii) above, any subordinated creditors, including for the avoidance of doubt holders of any instruments which as at their respective issue dates constitute or constituted Tier 2 Capital.

Issuance, repurchase and redemption

Issue Date and tenor

The Notes were issued on 14 December 2023. The Notes are perpetual and have no fixed date for redemption. The Issuer may only redeem the Notes in the circumstances described in Clause 12 (Redemption and repurchase of the Notes) of the Terms and Conditions. The Notes are not redeemable at the option of the Noteholders at any time.

Purchase of Notes by the Issuer and related companies

Subject to applicable law and Clause 12.5 (Permission from the Swedish FSA) of the Terms and Conditions, the Issuer or any other company forming part of the Resurs Consolidated Situation, may at any time on or following the First Call Date and at any price purchase Notes on the market or in any other way and at any price. Notes held by such company may at its discretion be retained, sold or cancelled.

Early redemption at the option of the Issuer

Subject to permission from the Swedish FSA in accordance with the Terms and Conditions, all (but not some only) outstanding Notes can be redeemed at the option of the Issuer on (i) the First Call Date or (ii) any Interest Payment Date falling after the First Call Date.

The Issuer can exercise its option by giving not less than fifteen (15) Business Days' notice to the Noteholders and the Agent in accordance with the Terms and Conditions. The Notes shall be redeemed at a price per Note equal to the Nominal Amount together with accrued but unpaid Interest.

Noteholders should not invest in the Notes with the expectation that a call will be exercised by the Issuer. The Swedish FSA must agree to permit such a call, based upon its evaluation of the regulatory capital position of the Issuer and the Resurs Consolidated Situation, and certain other factors at the relevant time. There is a risk that the Swedish FSA will not permit such a call or that the Issuer will not elect to exercise such a call. Noteholders should be aware that they may be required to bear the financial risks of an investment in the Notes indefinitely.

Early redemption, substitution or variation upon the occurrence of a Capital Event or Tax Event

Subject to permission from the Swedish FSA in accordance with the Terms and Conditions, all (but not some only) outstanding Notes can be redeemed, substituted or varied before the First Call Date at the option of the Issuer if a Capital Event or Tax Event occurs.

The Issuer can exercise its option by giving not less than fifteen (15) Business Days' notice to the relevant Noteholders and the Agent in accordance with the Terms and Conditions. If the Notes shall be redeemed, they shall be redeemed at a price per Note equal to the Nominal Amount together with accrued but unpaid Interest.

Payments in respect of the Notes

Any payment or repayment under the Finance Documents, or any amount due in respect of a repurchase of any Notes, shall be made to such person who is registered as a Noteholder on the Record Date prior to an Interest Payment Date or other relevant due date, or to such other person who is registered with the CSD on such date as being entitled to receive the relevant payment, repayment or repurchase amount.

Interest

Each Note carries Interest at the Interest Rate applied to the Nominal Amount from (but excluding) the Issue Date up to (and including) the relevant Redemption Date. Interest shall be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days in the Interest Period in respect of which payment is being made divided by 360 (actual/360-days basis).

Interest cancellation

Any payment of Interest in respect of the Notes shall be payable only out of the Issuer's Distributable Items and:

- (a) may be cancelled, at any time, in whole or in part, at the option of the Issuer in its sole discretion and notwithstanding that it has Distributable Items or that it may make any distributions pursuant to the Applicable Banking Regulations; or
- (b) will be mandatorily cancelled to the extent so required by the Applicable Banking Regulations, including the applicable criteria for Additional Tier 1 Capital instruments.

The Issuer can exercise its cancellation by giving notice to the relevant Noteholders and the Agent in accordance with the Terms and Conditions, which notice might be given after the date on which the relevant payment of Interest is scheduled to be made. However, failure to give such notice shall not prejudice the right of the Issuer to not pay Interest as aforementioned.

Trigger Events, loss absorption and reinstatement

A Trigger Event occurs if, at any time, the CET1 ratio of the Resurs Consolidated Situation, as calculated in accordance with the Applicable Capital Regulations, is less than 7.00 per cent., as determined by Resurs Bank and/or the Swedish FSA (or any agent appointed for such purpose by the Swedish FSA).

If at any time a Trigger Event occurs, the Issuer shall procure that Resurs Bank immediately notify the Swedish FSA, and the Issuer shall immediately notify the relevant Noteholders and the Agent in accordance with the Terms and Conditions and the Total Nominal Amount or the Issuer's payment obligation under the Notes shall be written down. A write-down shall be made as a reduction of the Total Nominal Amount and such write-down shall be considered to be an unconditional capital contribution (ovillkorat kapitaltillskott) by the Noteholders and shall be made in consultation with Resurs Bank and the Swedish FSA and in accordance with the rules of the CSD. The amount of the reduction of the Total Nominal Amount on the Write Down Date shall equal the amount of a write-down that would reduce the Total Nominal Amount down to SEK 240 for the Notes (i.e. down to a Nominal Amount of SEK 1) or such lower reduction amount as is sufficient to restore the CET1 ratio of the Resurs Consolidated Situation to at least 7.00 per cent., at the point of such write-down, on the terms as set out in Clause 11.1 (Loss absorption upon a Trigger Event) of the Terms and Conditions.

Following a write-down of the Total Nominal Amount, the Issuer may, at its sole and absolute discretion, reinstate the Notes, subject to compliance with any maximum distribution limits set out in the Applicable Capital Regulations and any other applicable regulations. The Issuer will not in any circumstances be obliged to reinstate in whole or in part the principal amount of the Notes. Any such reinstatement may constitute a “transfer of value” (värdeöverföring) for the purposes of the Swedish Companies Act (aktiebolagslagen (2005:551)) which would require the unanimous approval of the shareholders of the transferor (i.e. the Issuer) at the time of the transfer. No assurance can be given that the Issuer’s shareholders would approve any such reinstatement at the relevant time.

Unless write up of the principal of the Notes is permitted and possible in accordance with the rules of the CSD, reinstatement shall be made by way of issuing new notes (with a new ISIN) that qualify as Additional Tier 1 Capital of the Issuer to the relevant Noteholders. Any such new note issuance shall specify the relevant details of the manner in which such new note issuance shall take effect and where the Noteholders can obtain copies of the new terms and conditions of the new notes. Such new notes shall be issued without any cost or charge to the Noteholders and shall be made in accordance with the rules of the CSD. For the avoidance of doubt, at no time may the reinstated Total Nominal Amount exceed the original Total Nominal Amount of the respective Notes (if issued in full), being SEK 300,000,000.

European Benchmarks Regulation

The Interest payable under the Notes is calculated by reference to the benchmark STIBOR, as defined in the Terms and Conditions. This benchmark is provided by the Swedish Financial Benchmark Facility AB. At the date of this Prospectus, the Swedish Financial Benchmark Facility AB appears on the register of administrators and benchmarks maintained by ESMA pursuant to Article 36 of the Benchmarks Regulation.

Admission to trading of the Notes

The Issuer shall use reasonable efforts to ensure that the Notes are admitted to trading on Nasdaq Stockholm within thirty (30) days from the Issue Date, or, if such admission to trading is not possible to obtain, listed and admitted to trading on another Regulated Market. Prior to any admission to trading, there has been no public market for the Notes. An active trading market for the Notes may not develop or, if developed, it might not be sustained. The Nominal Amount may not be indicative of the market price for the Notes.

The Issuer shall, following the admission to trading, use reasonable efforts to maintain the admission to trading as long as any Notes are outstanding, however not longer than up to and including the last day of which the admission to trading can reasonably, pursuant to the applicable regulations of the Regulated Market and the CSD, subsist.

It is estimated that the Issuer’s costs in conjunction with the admission to trading will be no higher than SEK 150,000.

Decisions by Noteholders

A request by the Agent for a decision by the Noteholders on a matter relating to the Finance Documents shall (at the option of the Agent) be dealt with at a Noteholders’ Meeting or by way of a Written Procedure.

Only a Noteholder, or a person who has been provided with a power of attorney or other authorisation pursuant to Clause 7 (Right to act on behalf of a Noteholder) of the Terms and Conditions, from a Noteholder:

- (a) on the Record Date specified in the notice pursuant to Clause 16.2.2 in the Terms and Conditions, in respect of a Noteholders’ Meeting, or
- (b) on the Record Date specified in the communication pursuant to Clause 16.3.2 in the Terms and Conditions, in respect of a Written Procedure, may exercise voting rights as a Noteholder at such Noteholders’ Meeting or in such Written Procedure, provided that the relevant Notes are included in the Adjusted Total Nominal Amount. Each whole Note entitles to one vote and any fraction of a Note voted for by a person shall be disregarded. Such Business Day specified pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) above must fall no earlier than one (1) Business Day after the effective date of the communication, as the case may be.

A matter decided at a duly convened and held Noteholders' Meeting or by way of Written Procedure is binding on all Noteholders, irrespective of them being present or represented at the Noteholders' Meeting or responding in the Written Procedure. The Noteholders that have not adopted or voted for a decision shall not be liable for any damages that this may cause the Issuer or the other Noteholders.

Information about decisions taken at a Noteholders' Meeting or by way of a Written Procedure shall promptly be published on the websites of the Issuer and the Agent, provided that a failure to do so shall not invalidate any decision made or voting result achieved. The minutes from the relevant Noteholders' Meeting or Written Procedure shall at the request of a Noteholder be sent to it by the Issuer or the Agent, as applicable.

Noteholder representation and majority decisions by the Noteholders

Under the Terms and Conditions, the Agent represents each Noteholder in all matters relating to the Notes. The Terms and Conditions contain provisions to the effect that a Noteholder is prohibited from taking actions on its own against the Issuer. To enable the Agent to represent the Noteholders in court, the Noteholders can submit a written power of attorney for legal proceedings. The failure of all Noteholders to submit such a power of attorney is likely to negatively impact the enforcement options available to the Agent on behalf of the Noteholders. Further, under the Terms and Conditions the Agent is entitled in some cases to make decisions and take measures that bind all relevant Noteholders without first obtaining the prior consent of the Noteholders.

Additionally, under the Terms and Conditions certain majorities of Noteholders are entitled to make decisions and take measures that bind all Noteholders, including those who vote in a manner contrary to the majority. Therefore, the actions of the majority and the Agent in such matters impact the Noteholders' rights under the Finance Documents in a manner that is possibly undesirable for some of the Noteholders.

No direct action by Noteholders

Subject to certain exemptions set out in the Terms and Conditions, a Noteholder may not take any steps whatsoever against the Issuer to enforce or recover any amount due or owing to it pursuant to the Finance Documents, or to initiate, support or procure the winding-up, dissolution, liquidation or bankruptcy (or its equivalent in any other jurisdiction) of the Issuer in relation to any of the obligations and liabilities of the Issuer under the Finance Documents.

No right for the Noteholders or the Agent to accelerate the Notes

The Notes are intended to constitute Additional Tier 1 Capital of the Issuer. As such, the Terms and Conditions do not include any obligations or undertakings on the Issuer the breach of which would entitle the Noteholders or the Agent to accelerate the Notes.

Bankruptcy and liquidation

If, and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Terms and Conditions, only if, the Issuer is declared bankrupt or put into liquidation, a Noteholder may prove or claim in such bankruptcy or liquidation for payment of the Nominal Amount of Notes held by such Noteholder, together with Interest accrued to (but excluding) the date of commencement of the relevant bankruptcy or liquidation proceedings to the extent the Interest has not been cancelled by the Issuer.

No other remedy against the Issuer than as set out in the immediately preceding paragraph shall be available to the Noteholders in respect of the Notes, whether for the recovery of amounts owing in respect of the Notes or in respect of any breach by the Issuer of any of its obligations or undertakings with respect to the Notes.

Time-bar

The right to receive repayment of the principal of the Notes shall be time-barred and become void ten (10) years from the Redemption Date. Subject to Clause 10 (Interest and interest cancellation) of the Terms and Conditions, the right to receive payment of interest (excluding any capitalised interest) shall be time-barred and become void three (3) years from the relevant due date for payment. The Issuer is entitled to any funds set aside for payments in respect of which the Noteholders' right to receive payment has been time-barred and has become void.

Governing law

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection therewith shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Sweden. The Issuer submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the District Court of Stockholm (Stockholms tingsrätt).

The CSD

Euroclear Sweden AB, Swedish Corporate ID No. 556112-8074, P.O. Box 191, SE-101 23 Stockholm, Sweden, is initially acting as Central Securities Depository (CSD) and registrar in respect of the Notes.

The Issuer and the Agent shall at all times be entitled to obtain information from the debt register (skuldbok) kept by the CSD in respect of the Notes. At the request of the Agent, the Issuer shall promptly obtain such information and provide it to the Agent. For the purpose of carrying out any administrative procedure that arises out of the Finance Documents, the Issuing Agent shall be entitled to obtain information from the debt register kept by the CSD in respect of the Notes.

The Agent

Nordic Trustee & Agency AB (publ), Swedish Corporate ID No. 556882-1879, has been appointed as Agent on behalf of the relevant Noteholders in accordance with the Terms and Conditions. The Agency Agreement is available to the Noteholders at the office of the Agent during normal business hours.

The Issuing Agent

Nordea Bank Abp has been appointed as Issuing Agent in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

The Joint Bookrunners

Nordea Bank Abp, Finnish Reg. No. 2858394-9 and Swedbank AB (publ), Swedish Reg. No. 502017-7753 have been appointed as Joint Bookrunners.

Rating

The Notes have not been assigned a credit rating by any credit rating agency.

Use of proceeds

The Issuer shall use the proceeds from the issue of the Notes for general corporate purposes of the Resurs Group.

Restrictions on the transferability of the Notes

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or any U.S. state securities laws. A holder of Notes may not offer or sell the Notes in the United States. The Issuer has not undertaken to register the Notes under the U.S. Securities Act or any U.S. state securities laws or to effect any exchange offer for the Notes in the future. Furthermore, the Issuer has not registered the Notes under any other country's securities laws. It is the Noteholder's obligation to ensure that the offers and sales of Notes comply with all applicable securities laws.

At the request of the Agent, the Issuer shall promptly obtain such information and provide it to the Agent. For the purpose of carrying out any administrative procedure that arises out of the Finance Documents, the Issuing Agent shall be entitled to obtain information from the Debt Register.
- 6.4 The Issuer shall issue any necessary power of attorney to such persons employed by the Agent, as notified by the Agent, in order for such individuals to independently obtain information directly from the Debt Register. The Issuer may not revoke any such power of attorney unless directed by the Agent or unless consent thereto is given by the Noteholders.
- 6.5 The Issuer and the Agent may use the information referred to in Clause 6.3 only for the purposes of carrying out their duties and exercising their rights in accordance with the Finance Documents and the Agency Agreement and shall not disclose such information to any Noteholder or third party unless necessary for such purposes.

7. RIGHT TO ACT ON BEHALF OF A NOTEHOLDER

- 7.1 If any person other than a Noteholder (including the owner of a Note, if such person is not the Noteholder) wishes to exercise any rights under the Finance Documents, it must obtain a power of attorney or other authorisation from the Noteholder or a successive, coherent chain of powers of attorney or authorisations starting with the Noteholder and authorising such person.
- 7.2 A Noteholder may issue one or several powers of attorney to third parties to represent it in relation to some or all of the Notes held by it. Any such representative may act independently under the Finance Documents in relation to the Notes for which such representative is entitled to represent the Noteholder and may further delegate its right to represent the Noteholder by way of a further power of attorney (unless the power of attorney from such Noteholder states otherwise).

- 7.3 The Agent shall only have to examine the face of a power of attorney or other authorisation that has been provided to it pursuant to Clause 7.2 and may assume that such document has been duly authorised, is valid, has not been revoked or superseded and that it is in full force and effect, unless otherwise is apparent from its face or the Agent has actual knowledge to the contrary.
- 7.4 These Terms and Conditions shall not affect the relationship between a Noteholder who is the nominee (förvaltare) with respect to a Note and the owner of such Note, and it is the responsibility of such nominee to observe and comply with any restrictions that may apply to it in this capacity.

8. ADMISSION TO TRADING

- 8.1 The Issuer shall use reasonable efforts to ensure that the Notes are admitted to trading on Nasdaq Stockholm within thirty (30) days from the Issue Date or, if such admission to trading is not possible to obtain, admitted to trading on another Regulated Market.
- 8.2 The Issuer shall, following the admission to trading, use reasonable efforts to maintain the admission to trading as long as any Notes are outstanding, however not longer than up to and including the last day of which the admission to trading can reasonably, pursuant to the applicable regulations of the Regulated Market and the CSD Regulations, subsist.
- 8.3 For the avoidance of doubt, neither a Noteholder nor the Agent has the right to accelerate the Notes or otherwise request a prepayment or redemption of the Notes if a failure to admit the Notes to trading or maintain admission to trading of the Notes in accordance with Clause 8.1 or 8.2 occurs.

9. PAYMENTS IN RESPECT OF THE NOTES

- 9.1 Any payment or repayment under the Finance Documents, or any amount due in respect of a repurchase of any Notes, shall be made to such person who is registered as a Noteholder on the Record Date prior to an Interest Payment Date or other relevant payment date, or to such other person who is registered with the CSD on such Record Date as being entitled to receive the relevant payment, repayment or repurchase amount.
- 9.2 Provided that a Noteholder has registered an income account (avkastningskonto) for the relevant Securities Account on the applicable Record Date, the CSD shall procure that principal, interest and other payments under the Notes are deposited to such income account on the relevant payment date. If an income account has not been registered on the Record Date for the payment, no payment will be effected by the CSD to such Noteholder. The outstanding amount will instead be held by the Issuer until the person that was registered as a Noteholder on the relevant Record Date has made a valid request for such amount. Should the CSD, due to a delay on behalf of the Issuer or some other obstacle, not be able to effect payments as aforesaid, the Issuer shall procure that such amounts are paid to the persons who are registered as Noteholders on the relevant Record Date as soon as possible after such obstacle has been removed.
- 9.3 If, due to any obstacle for the CSD, the Issuer cannot make a payment or repayment, such payment or repayment may be postponed until the obstacle has been removed. For the avoidance of doubt, such postponement shall in no event constitute an event of default.
- 9.4 If payment or repayment is made in accordance with this Clause 9 (Payments in respect of the Notes), the Issuer and the CSD shall be deemed to have fulfilled their obligation to pay, irrespective of whether such payment was made to a person not entitled to receive such amount (unless the Issuer has actual knowledge of the fact that the payment was made to the wrong person).

- 9.5 The Issuer is not liable to gross-up any payments under the Finance Documents by virtue of any withholding tax (including but not limited to any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the “Code”) or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, or any official interpretations thereof, or any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto), public levy or the similar.

10. INTEREST AND INTEREST CANCELLATION

10.1 Interest

- 10.1.1 Subject to Clause 10.2 and Clause 11, each Note carries Interest at the Interest Rate applied to the Nominal Amount from (but excluding) the Issue Date up to (and including) the relevant Redemption Date.
- 10.1.2 Interest accrues during an Interest Period. Payment of Interest in respect of the Notes shall be made to the Noteholders on each Interest Payment Date for the preceding Interest Period.
- 10.1.3 Interest shall be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days in the Interest Period in respect of which payment is being made divided by 360 (actual/360-days basis).

10.2 Interest cancellation

- 10.2.1 Any payment of Interest in respect of the Notes shall be payable only out of the Issuer’s Distributable Items and:
- (a) may be cancelled, at any time, in whole or in part, at the option of the Issuer in its sole discretion and notwithstanding that it has Distributable Items or that it may make any distributions pursuant to the Applicable Capital Regulations; or
 - (b) will be mandatorily cancelled if and to the extent so required by the Applicable Capital Regulations, including the applicable criteria for Additional Tier 1 Capital instruments.
- 10.2.2 The Issuer shall give notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Clause 24 (Notices) of any such cancellation of a payment of Interest, which notice might be given after the date on which the relevant payment of Interest is scheduled to be made. Notwithstanding the foregoing, failure to give such notice shall not prejudice the right of the Issuer not to pay Interest as described above and shall not constitute an event of default for any purpose.
- 10.2.3 Following any cancellation of Interest as described above, the right of the Noteholders to receive accrued Interest in respect of any such Interest Period will terminate and the Issuer will have no further obligation to pay such Interest or to pay interest thereon, whether or not payments of Interest in respect of subsequent Interest Periods are made, and such unpaid Interest will not be deemed to have “accrued” or been earned for any purpose.
- 10.2.4 Failure to pay such interest (or the cancelled part thereof) in accordance with this Clause 10 shall not constitute an event of default or the occurrence of any event related to the insolvency of the Issuer or entitle the Noteholders to take any action to cause the Issuer to be declared bankrupt or for the liquidation, winding-up or dissolution of the Issuer.

10.3 Calculation of Interest in case of write-down or reinstatement

- 10.3.1 Subject to Clause 10.2 (Interest cancellation), in the event that a write-down of the Notes occurs pursuant to Clause 11.1 (Loss absorption upon a Trigger Event) during an Interest Period, Interest will continue to accrue on the Nominal Amount (as adjusted as of the relevant Write Down Date).

10.3.2 Subject to Clause 10.2 (Interest cancellation), in the event that a reinstatement of the Notes occurs pursuant to Clause 11.2 (Reinstatement of the Notes), Interest shall begin to accrue on the reinstated Nominal Amount with effect from (and including) the relevant Reinstatement Date.

10.3.3 In connection with a write-down or write-up pursuant to Clause 11 (Loss absorption and reinstatement), the Issuer shall inform the CSD of the adjusted basis for calculation that shall be applied on the next Interest Payment Date, in order for the Noteholders to receive an amount of Interest equivalent to the Interest Rate on the Nominal Amount so written down or written up (as applicable).

10.4 No penalty interest

Under no circumstances shall any penalty interest (dröjsmålsränta) be payable by the Issuer in respect of the Notes.

11. LOSS ABSORPTION AND REINSTATEMENT

11.1 Loss absorption upon a Trigger Event

11.1.1 If at any time a Trigger Event occurs, the Issuer shall notify the Swedish FSA and the Issuer shall immediately notify the Noteholders and the Agent in accordance with Clause 24 (Notices) and the Total Nominal Amount and the Issuer's payment obligation under the Notes shall be written down in accordance with this Clause 11.1 (Loss absorption upon a Trigger Event).

11.1.2 A write-down shall take place without delay on a date selected by the Issuer (the "Write Down Date") but no later than one month following the occurrence of the relevant Trigger Event. The Swedish FSA may require that the period of one month referred to above is reduced in cases where it assesses that sufficient certainty on the required amount of the write-down is established or in cases where it assesses that an immediate write-down is needed. For the purposes of determining whether a Trigger Event has occurred, the CET1 Ratio may be calculated at any time based on information (whether or not published) available to management of Resurs Bank, including information internally reported within the Issuer pursuant to its procedures for monitoring the CET1 Ratio. The Issuer shall procure that Resurs Bank calculates and publishes the CET1 Ratio on at least a semi-annual basis. The determination as to whether a Trigger Event has occurred shall be made by the Issuer, the Swedish FSA or any agent appointed for such purpose by the Swedish FSA and any such determination shall be binding on the Issuer and the Noteholders.

11.1.3 A write-down shall be made as a reduction of the Total Nominal Amount and such write-down shall be considered to be an unconditional capital contribution (ovillkorat kapitaltillskott) by the Noteholders and shall be made in consultation with the Swedish FSA and in accordance with the CSD Regulations.

11.1.4 The aggregate reduction of the Total Nominal Amount of the Notes outstanding on the Write Down Date will, subject as provided below, be equal to the lower of:

- (a) the amount necessary to generate sufficient CET1 Capital that would restore the CET1 Ratio of the Consolidated Situation to at least seven (7) per cent. at the point of such reduction, after taking into account (subject as provided below) the pro rata write-down and/or conversion of the prevailing nominal amount of all Loss Absorbing Instruments (if any) to be written down and/or converted concurrently (or substantially concurrently) with the Notes, provided that, with respect to each Loss Absorbing Instrument (if any), such pro rata write-down and/or conversion shall only be taken into account to the extent required to restore the CET1 Ratio contemplated above to the lower of (i) such Loss Absorbing Instrument's trigger level and (ii) the trigger level in respect of the Trigger Event under the Notes has occurred and, in each case, in accordance with the terms of the relevant Loss Absorbing Instruments and the Applicable Capital Regulations; and

- (b) the amount that would result in the Nominal Amount of a Note being reduced to SEK 1.00.
- 11.1.5 The aggregate reduction determined in accordance with Clause 11.1.4 shall be applied to all of the Notes pro rata on the basis of their Nominal Amount immediately prior to the write-down and references herein to “Write Down Amount” shall mean, in respect of each Note, the amount by which the Nominal Amount of such Note is to be written down accordingly. A Trigger Event may occur on more than one occasion (and each Note may be written down on more than one occasion).
- 11.1.6 To the extent the write down and/or conversion of any Loss Absorbing Instruments for the purpose of Clause 11.1.4 is not possible for any reason, this shall not in any way prevent any write-down of the Notes. Instead, in such circumstances, the Notes will be written down and the Write Down Amount determined as provided above but without including for the purpose of Clause 11.1.4 any CET1 Capital in respect of the write down or conversion of such Loss Absorbing Instruments, to the extent it is not possible for them to be written down and/or converted.
- 11.1.7 The Issuer shall set out its determination of the Write Down Amount per Note in the relevant notice referred to in Clause 11.1.8 below together with the Nominal Amount following the relevant write-down. However, if the Write Down Amount has not been determined when such notice is given, the Issuer shall, as soon as reasonably practicable following such determination, notify the Write Down Amount to the Noteholders and the Agent in accordance with Clause 24 (Notices) and procure that the Swedish FSA is notified. The Issuer’s determination of the relevant Write Down Amount shall be irrevocable and binding on all parties.
- 11.1.8 If the Notes are to be written down, the Issuer shall notify the Noteholders and the Agent in accordance with Clause 24 (Notices). Notwithstanding the foregoing, failure to give such notice shall not prejudice, affect the effectiveness of, or otherwise invalidate, any write-down of the Notes.
- 11.1.9 Any reduction of the Nominal Amount of a Note pursuant to this Clause 11.1 (Loss absorption upon a Trigger Event) shall not constitute an event of default by the Issuer for any purpose, and the Noteholders shall have no right to claim for amounts written down, whether in liquidation or bankruptcy of the Issuer or otherwise, save to the extent (if any) such amounts are reinstated in accordance with Clause 11.2 (Reinstatement of the Notes).

11.2 Reinstatement of the Notes

- 11.2.1 Following a write-down of the Total Nominal Amount in accordance with Clause 11.1 (Loss absorption upon a Trigger Event), the Issuer may, at its absolute discretion reinstate any portion of the principal of the Notes, subject to compliance with any maximum distribution limits set out in the Applicable Capital Regulations and any other applicable regulations.
- 11.2.2 Unless write up of the principal of the Notes is permitted and possible in accordance with the CSD Regulations, reinstatement shall be made by way of issuing new notes that qualify as Additional Tier 1 Capital of the Consolidated Situation to the relevant Noteholders. Any such new note issuance shall specify the relevant details of the manner in which such new note issuance shall take effect and where the Noteholders can obtain copies of the new terms and conditions of the new notes. Such new notes shall be issued without any cost or charge to the Noteholders and shall be made in accordance with the CSD Regulations.
- 11.2.3 A reinstatement in accordance with this Clause 11.2 (Reinstatement of the Notes) shall be made taking into account any preceding or imminent reinstatement of corresponding or similar loss absorbing instruments (if any) issued by the Issuer or any other member of the Consolidated Situation, including but not limited to Additional Tier 1 Capital instruments (other than the Notes).
- 11.2.4 For the avoidance of doubt, at no time may the reinstated Total Nominal Amount exceed the original Total Nominal Amount of the Notes (if issued in full), as at the Issue Date, being SEK 300,000,000.

- 11.2.5 For the avoidance of doubt, any reinstatement of any proportion of the principal of the Notes (either by way of write up of the principal of the Notes or by way of issuing new notes that qualify as Additional Tier 1 Capital of the Consolidated Situation) shall be made on a pro rata basis and without any preference among the Notes and on a pro rata basis with the reinstatement of all Written Down Additional Tier 1 Instruments (if any). Any failure by the Issuer to reinstate the Notes on a pro rata basis with the write up of all Written Down Additional Tier 1 Instruments (if any) however will not affect the effectiveness, or otherwise invalidate, any reinstatement of the Notes and/or reinstatement of the Written Down Additional Tier 1 Instruments or give Noteholders any rights as a result of such failure.
- 11.2.6 If the Issuer decides to reinstate any proportion of the principal of the Notes, the Issuer shall notify the Noteholders and the Agent in accordance with Clause 24 (Notices) prior to such reinstatements becoming effective and specifying the date on which the reinstatements will become effective (the “Reinstatement Date”). Such notice shall specify the Record Date and any technical or administrative actions that a Noteholder needs to undertake to receive its portion of the reinstatement. A reinstatement of the Notes shall take place on a Business Day as selected by the Issuer, however, falling no earlier than twenty (20) Business Days following the effective date of the reinstatement notice.

12. REDEMPTION AND REPURCHASE OF THE NOTES

12.1 No scheduled redemption

- 12.1.1 The Notes are perpetual and have no fixed date for redemption. The Issuer may only redeem the Notes in the circumstances described in this Clause 12 (Redemption and repurchase of the Notes).
- 12.1.2 The Notes are not redeemable at the option of the Noteholders at any time and the Noteholders shall have no right to accelerate the Notes or other remedies or sanctions against the Issuer for any breach of these Terms and Conditions by the Issuer, other than as set out in Clause 14 (Bankruptcy or liquidation).

12.2 Redemption at the option of the Issuer

Subject to Clause 12.5 (Permission from the Swedish FSA) and giving notice in accordance with Clause 12.7 (Notice of redemption, substitution or variation), the Issuer may redeem all (but not some only) outstanding Notes at:

- (a) any Business Day falling within the Initial Call Period; or
- (b) any Interest Payment Date falling after the Initial Call Period.

12.3 Purchase of Notes by the Issuer and related companies

Subject to applicable regulations and to Clause 12.5 (Permission from the Swedish FSA), the Issuer or any other Group Company, or other company forming part of the Consolidated Situation, may at any time on or following the First Call Date and at any price purchase Notes on the market or in any other way and at any price. Notes held by such company may at its discretion be retained, sold or cancelled.

12.4 Redemption, substitution or variation upon the occurrence of a Capital Event or Tax Event

If a Capital Event or Tax Event occurs, the Issuer may, at its option, but subject to Clause 12.5 (Permission from the Swedish FSA) and giving notice in accordance with Clause 12.7 (Notice of redemption, substitution or variation):

- (a) redeem all (but not some only) outstanding Notes on any Interest Payment Date; or

- (b) substitute or vary the terms of all (but not some only) of the outstanding Notes without any requirement for the consent or approval of the Noteholders, so that they become or remain, as applicable, Qualifying Securities, provided that such substitution or variation does not itself give rise to any right of the Issuer to redeem, substitute or vary the terms of the Notes in accordance with this Clause 12.4 (Redemption, substitution or variation upon the occurrence of a Capital Event or Tax Event) in relation to the Qualifying Securities so substituted or varied.

12.5 Permission from the Swedish FSA

The Issuer, or any other company forming part of the Consolidated Situation, may not redeem, purchase, substitute or vary as contemplated by this Clause 12 (Redemption and repurchase of the Notes), any Notes without obtaining the prior written permission of the Swedish FSA and in accordance with the Applicable Capital Regulations (including any pre-conditions set out therein at the relevant time). Any refusal by the Swedish FSA to give its permission shall not constitute an event of default for any purpose.

12.6 Redemption amount

The Notes shall be redeemed at a price per Note equal to the Nominal Amount together with accrued but unpaid Interest.

12.7 Notice of redemption, substitution or variation

12.7.1 Any redemption, substitution or variation in accordance with Clauses 12.2 (Redemption at the option of the Issuer) and 12.4 (Redemption, substitution or variation upon the occurrence of a Capital Event or Tax Event) shall be made by the Issuer having given:

- (a) not less than fifteen (15) Business Days' notice to the Noteholders; and
- (b) not less than five (5) Business Days' notice (or such lesser period as may be agreed between the Issuer and the Agent) before the giving of the notice referred to in paragraph (a) above to the Agent.

in each case notice shall be given in accordance with Clause 24 (Notices). Any such notice is irrevocable and, upon expiry of the notice period, the Issuer is bound to redeem the Notes.

12.7.2 Notwithstanding Clause 12.7.1, if a Trigger Event occurs following a notice being given in accordance with Clause 12.7.1 but prior to the relevant redemption of the Notes, such notice shall be of no force and effect and Clause 11.1 (Loss absorption upon a Trigger Event) shall apply, and, for the avoidance of doubt, no redemption shall occur.

13. INFORMATION TO NOTEHOLDERS

13.1 Information from the Issuer

The Issuer shall make the following information available to the Noteholders and the Agent by way of publication on the website of the Issuer:

- (a) as soon as the same become available, but in any event within four (4) months after the end of each financial year, audited consolidated financial statements of the Group for that financial year prepared in accordance with the Accounting Principles; and

13.2 Information from the Agent

Subject to the restrictions of any agreement regarding the non-disclosure of information received from the Issuer, the Agent is entitled to disclose to the Noteholders any event or circumstance directly or indirectly relating to the Issuer or the Notes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Agent may if it considers it to be beneficial to the interests of the Noteholders delay disclosure or refrain from disclosing certain information.

13.3 Information among the Noteholders

Upon a reasonable request by a Noteholder, the Agent shall promptly distribute to the Noteholders any information from such Noteholder which relates to the Notes. The Agent may require that the requesting Noteholder or the Issuer reimburses any costs or expenses incurred, or to be incurred, by the Agent in doing so (including a reasonable fee for the work of the Agent) before any such information is distributed.

13.4 Publication of Finance Documents

The latest version of these Terms and Conditions (including any document amending these Terms and Conditions) shall be available on the websites of the Issuer and the Agent.

14. BANKRUPTCY OR LIQUIDATION

14.1 The Noteholders have no right to accelerate the Notes or otherwise request prepayment or redemption of the principal amount of the Notes. If, and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Terms and Conditions, only if, the Issuer is declared bankrupt or put into liquidation, a Noteholder may prove or claim in such bankruptcy or liquidation for payment of the Nominal Amount of Notes held by such Noteholder, together with Interest accrued to (but excluding) the date of commencement of the relevant bankruptcy or liquidation proceedings to the extent the Interest has not been cancelled by the Issuer.

- (a) by notice to the Issuer, declare all, but not only some, of the outstanding Notes due for payment together with any other amounts payable under the Finance Documents (except any Interest cancelled in accordance with Clause 10.2 (Interest cancellation)), immediately or at such later date as the Agent determines; and
- (b) exercise any or all of its rights, remedies, powers and discretions under the Finance Documents.

14.3 In the event of an acceleration of the Notes upon the Issuer being declared bankrupt or put into liquidation, the Issuer shall redeem all Notes at an amount equal to one hundred (100) per cent. of the Nominal Amount together with accrued and unpaid interest. However, no payment will be made to the Noteholders before all amounts due, but unpaid, to all other creditors of the Issuer ranking ahead of the Noteholders as described in Clause 3 (Status of the Notes) have been repaid by the Issuer, as ascertained by the judicial liquidator (likvidator) or bankruptcy administrator (konkursförvaltare).

14.4 In the event of bankruptcy, liquidation or resolution of the Issuer, no Noteholder shall be entitled to exercise any right of set-off or counterclaim against monies owned by the Issuer in respect of the Notes held by such Noteholder.

15. DISTRIBUTION OF PROCEEDS

The Agent shall arrange for payments of such funds in accordance with this Clause 15 (Distribution of proceeds) as soon as reasonably practicable.

15.3 If the Issuer or the Agent shall make any payment under this Clause 15 (Distribution of proceeds), the Issuer or the Agent, as applicable, shall notify the Noteholders of any such payment at least fifteen (15) Business Days before the payment is made in accordance with Clause 24 (Notices). The person requesting the decision may suggest the form for decision making, but if it is in the Agent's opinion more appropriate that a matter is dealt with at a Noteholders' Meeting than by way of a Written Procedure, it shall be dealt with at a Noteholders' Meeting.

- 16.1.3 The Agent may refrain from convening a Noteholders' Meeting or instigating a Written Procedure if:

Should the Issuer in such situation not convene a Noteholders' Meeting, the person requesting the decision by Noteholders may convene such Noteholders' Meeting or instigate such Written Procedure, as the case may be, instead. The Issuer or the Issuing Agent shall then upon request provide the convening Noteholder with such information available in the Debt Register as may be necessary in order to convene and hold the Noteholders' Meeting or instigate and carry out the Written Procedure, as the case may be. have been received in a Written Procedure, the relevant decision shall be deemed to be adopted pursuant to Clause 16.4.2 or 16.4.3, as the case may be, even if the time period for replies in the Written Procedure has not yet expired.

16.3.4 The Agent may, during the Written Procedure, provide information to the Issuer by way of updates whether or not quorum requirements have been met and about the eligible votes received by the Agent, including the portion consenting or not consenting to the proposal(s) or refraining from voting (as applicable).

16.4 Majority, quorum and other provisions

16.4.1 Only a Noteholder, or a person who has been provided with a power of attorney or other authorisation pursuant to Clause 7 (Right to act on behalf of a Noteholder) from a Noteholder:

- (a) on the Record Date specified in the notice pursuant to Clause 16.2.2, in respect of a Noteholders' Meeting, or
- (b) on the Record Date specified in the communication pursuant to Clause 16.3.2, in respect of a Written Procedure,

Each whole Note entitles to one vote and any fraction of a Note voted for by a person shall be disregarded. Such Business Day specified pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) above must fall no earlier than one (1) Business Day after the effective date of the communication, as the case may be.

16.4.2 The following matters shall require the consent of Noteholders representing at least seventy-five (75) per cent. of the Adjusted Total Nominal Amount for which Noteholders are voting at a Noteholders' Meeting or for which Noteholders reply in a Written Procedure in accordance with the instructions given pursuant Clause 16.3.2:

- (a) a change to the terms of Clauses 2.1, 3.1, 14.1 or 15.1;

- (d) a change to the terms dealing with the requirements for Noteholders' consent set out in this Clause 16.4 (Majority, quorum and other provisions); and
- (e) a redemption of the Notes, other than as permitted by these Terms and Conditions (which for the avoidance of doubt shall always be subject to Clause 12.5 (Permission from the Swedish FSA) above).

16.4.3 Any matter not covered by Clause 16.4.2 shall require the consent of Noteholders representing more than fifty (50) per cent. of the Adjusted Total Nominal Amount for which Noteholders are voting at a Noteholders' Meeting or for which Noteholders reply in a Written Procedure in accordance with the instructions given pursuant to Clause 16.3.2. This includes, but is not limited to, any amendment to, or waiver of, the terms of any Finance Document that does not require a higher majority (other than an amendment permitted pursuant to Clause 17.1(a), 17.1(d) or 17.1(e)).

16.4.4 Quorum at a Noteholders' Meeting or in respect of a Written Procedure only exists if a Noteholder (or Noteholders) representing at least fifty (50) per cent. of the Adjusted Total Nominal Amount in case of a matter pursuant to Clause 16.4.2, and otherwise twenty (20) per cent. of the Adjusted Total Nominal Amount:

 - (b) if in respect of a Written Procedure, reply to the request.
- 16.4.5 If a quorum exists for some but not all of the matters to be dealt with at a Noteholders' Meeting or by a Written Procedure, decisions may be taken in the matters for which a quorum exists.
- 16.4.6 If a quorum does not exist at a Noteholders' Meeting or in respect of a Written Procedure, the Agent or the Issuer shall convene a second Noteholders' Meeting (in accordance with Clause 16.2.1) or initiate a second Written Procedure (in accordance with Clause 16.3.1), as the case may be, provided that the person(s) who initiated the procedure for Noteholders' consent has confirmed that the relevant proposal is not withdrawn. For the purposes of a second Noteholders' Meeting or second Written Procedure pursuant to this Clause 16.4.6, the date of request of the second Noteholders' Meeting pursuant to Clause 16.2.1 or second Written Procedure pursuant to Clause 16.3.1, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be the relevant date when the quorum did not exist. The quorum requirement in Clause 16.4.4 shall not apply to such second Noteholders' Meeting or Written Procedure.
- 16.4.7 Any decision which extends or increases the obligations of the Issuer or the Agent, or limits, reduces or extinguishes the rights or benefits of the Issuer or the Agent, under the Finance Documents shall be subject to the Issuer's or the Agent's consent, as applicable.
- 16.4.8 A Noteholder holding more than one Note need not use all its votes or cast all the votes to which it is entitled in the same way and may in its discretion use or cast some of its votes only.
- 16.4.9 The Issuer may not, directly or indirectly, pay or cause to be paid any consideration to or for the benefit of owner of Notes (irrespective of whether such person is a Noteholder) for or as inducement to vote under these Terms and Conditions, unless such consideration is offered to all Noteholders that vote in respect of the proposal at the relevant Noteholders' Meeting or in a Written Procedure within the time period stipulated for the consideration to be payable or the time period for replies in the Written Procedure, as the case may be.
- 16.4.10 A matter decided at a duly convened and held Noteholders' Meeting or by way of Written Procedure is binding on all Noteholders, irrespective of them being present or represented at the Noteholders' Meeting or responding in the Written Procedure or how they voted. The Noteholders that have not adopted or voted for a decision shall not be liable for any damages that this may cause the Issuer or the other Noteholders.
- 16.4.11 All costs and expenses incurred by the Issuer or the Agent for the purpose of convening a Noteholders' Meeting or for the purpose of carrying out a Written Procedure, including reasonable fees to the Agent, shall be paid by the Issuer.
- 16.4.12 If a decision is to be taken by the Noteholders on a matter relating to the Finance Documents, the Issuer shall promptly at the request of the Agent provide the Agent with a certificate specifying the number of Notes owned by Group Companies or (to the knowledge of the Issuer) Affiliates as per the Record Date for voting, irrespective of whether such person is a Noteholder. The Agent shall not be responsible for the accuracy of such certificate or otherwise be responsible for determining whether a Note is owned by a Group Company or an Affiliate.
- 16.4.13 Information about decisions taken at a Noteholders' Meeting or by way of a Written Procedure shall promptly be published on the websites of the Issuer and the Agent, provided that a failure to do so shall not invalidate any decision made or voting result achieved. The minutes from the relevant Noteholders' Meeting or Written Procedure shall at the request of a Noteholder be sent to it by the Issuer or the Agent, as applicable.

17. AMENDMENTS AND WAIVERS

17.1 The Issuer and the Agent (acting on behalf of the Noteholders) may, subject to the prior written permission of the Swedish FSA (to the extent required pursuant to Applicable Capital Regulations), agree to amend the Finance Documents or waive any provision in a Finance Document, provided that the Agent is satisfied that such amendment or waiver:

- (a) is not detrimental to the interest of the Noteholders;
- (b) is made solely for the purpose of rectifying obvious errors and mistakes;
- (c) is required by the Swedish FSA for the Notes to satisfy the requirements for Additional Tier 1 Capital under the Applicable Capital Regulations as applied by the Swedish FSA from time to time;
- (d) is required by any applicable regulation, a court ruling or a decision by a relevant authority, including but not limited to, to facilitate any measure by the relevant regulator pursuant to the Swedish Resolution Act (lag (2015:1016) om resolution);

- (f) is made in connection with the consummation of a Merger;
- (g) is necessary for the purpose of having the Notes admitted to trading on the corporate bond list of Nasdaq Stockholm (or any other Regulated Market, as applicable) provided that such amendment or waiver does not materially adversely affect the rights of the Noteholders; or
- (h) has been duly approved by the Noteholders in accordance with Clause 16 (Decisions by Noteholders).

17.2 The Issuer may substitute or vary the terms of all (but not some only) of the outstanding Notes without any requirement for the consent or approval of the Noteholders, so that they become or remain, as applicable, Qualifying Securities, provided that such substitution or variation does not itself give rise to any right of the Issuer to redeem, substitute or vary the terms of the Notes in accordance with Clause 12.4 (Redemption, substitution or variation upon the occurrence of a Capital Event or Tax Event) in relation to the Qualifying Securities so substituted or varied.

17.3 The Agent shall promptly notify the Noteholders of any amendments or waivers made in accordance with Clause 17.1, setting out the date from which the amendment or waiver will be effective, and ensure that any amendments to the Finance Documents are published in the manner stipulated in Clause 13.4 (Publication of Finance Documents). The Issuer shall ensure that any amendments to the Finance Documents are duly registered with the CSD and each other relevant organisation or authority.

17.4 An amendment to the Finance Documents shall take effect on the date determined by the Noteholders Meeting, in the Written Procedure or by the Agent, as the case may be.

18. REPLACEMENT OF BASE RATE

18.1 General

18.1.1 Any determination or election to be made by an Independent Adviser, the Issuer or the Noteholders in accordance with the provisions of this Clause 18 shall at all times be made by such Independent Adviser, the Issuer or the Noteholders (as applicable) acting in good faith, in a commercially reasonable manner and by reference to relevant market data.

18.1.2 If a Base Rate Event has occurred, this Clause 18 shall take precedence over the fallbacks set out in paragraph (b) to (d) (inclusive) of the definition of STIBOR.

18.1.3 Notwithstanding any provision in this Clause 18, no Successor Base Rate or Adjustment Spread (as applicable) will be adopted, and no other amendments to the Terms and Conditions will be made pursuant to this Clause 18, if, and to the extent that, in the determination of the Issuer, the same could reasonably be expected to lead to a disqualification of the Notes from the Additional Tier Capital of the Consolidated Situation.

18.2 Definitions

In this Clause 18:

“Adjustment Spread” means a spread (which may be positive, negative or zero) or a formula or methodology for calculating a spread, or a combination thereof to be applied to a Successor Base Rate and that is:

- (a) formally recommended by any Relevant Nominating Body in relation to the replacement of the Base Rate; or
- (b) if paragraph (a) above is not applicable, the adjustment spread that the Independent Adviser determines is reasonable to use in order to eliminate, to the extent possible, any transfer of economic value from one party to another as a result of a replacement of the Base Rate and is customarily applied in comparable debt capital market transactions.

“Base Rate Amendments” has the meaning set forth in Clause 18.3.4.

“Base Rate Event” means one or several of the following circumstances:

- (a) the Base Rate (for the relevant Interest Period) has ceased to exist or ceased to be published for at least five (5) consecutive Business Days as a result of the Base Rate (for the relevant Interest Period) ceasing to be calculated or administered;
- (b) a public statement or publication of information by (i) the supervisor of the Base Rate Administrator or (ii) the Base Rate Administrator that the Base Rate Administrator ceases to provide the applicable Base Rate (for the relevant Interest Period) permanently or indefinitely and, at the time of the statement or publication, no successor administrator has been appointed or is expected to be appointed to continue to provide the Base Rate;
- (c) a public statement or publication of information in each case by the supervisor of the Base Rate Administrator that the Base Rate (for the relevant Interest Period) is no longer representative of the underlying market which the Base Rate is intended to represent and the representativeness of the Base Rate will not be restored in the opinion of the supervisor of the Base Rate Administrator;
- (d) a public statement or publication of information in each case by the supervisor of the Base Rate Administrator with the consequence that it is unlawful for the Issuer or the Issuing Agent to calculate any payments due to be made to any Noteholder using the applicable Base Rate (for the relevant Interest Period) or it has otherwise become prohibited to use the applicable Base Rate (for the relevant Interest Period);
- (e) a public statement or publication of information in each case by the bankruptcy trustee of the Base Rate Administrator or by the trustee under the bank recovery and resolution framework (krishanteringsregelverket) containing the information referred to in paragraph (b) above; or
- (f) a Base Rate Event Announcement has been made and the announced Base Rate Event as set out in paragraphs (b) to (e) above will occur within six (6) months.

“Base Rate Event Announcement” means a public statement or published information as set out in paragraph (b) to (e) of the definition of Base Rate Event that any event or circumstance specified therein will occur.

“Independent Adviser” means an independent financial institution or adviser of repute in the debt capital markets where the Base Rate is commonly used.

“Relevant Nominating Body” means, subject to applicable law, firstly any relevant supervisory authority, secondly any applicable central bank, or any working group or committee of any of them, or thirdly the Financial Stability Council (Finansiella stabilitetsrådet) or any part thereof.

“Successor Base Rate” means:

- (a) a screen or benchmark rate, including the methodology for calculating term structure and calculation methods in respect of debt instruments with similar interest rate terms as the Notes, which is formally recommended as a successor to or replacement of the Base Rate by a Relevant Nominating Body; or
- (b) if there is no such rate as described in paragraph (a) above, such other rate as the Independent Adviser determines is most comparable to the Base Rate.

For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that a Successor Base Rate ceases to exist, this definition shall apply mutatis mutandis to such new Successor Base Rate.

18.3 Determination of Base Rate, Adjustment Spread and Base Rate Amendments

- 18.3.1 Without prejudice to Clause 18.3.2, upon a Base Rate Event Announcement, the Issuer may, if it is possible to determine a Successor Base Rate at such point of time, at any time before the occurrence of the relevant Base Rate Event at the Issuer’s expense appoint an Independent Adviser to initiate the procedure to determine a Successor Base Rate, the Adjustment Spread and any Base Rate Amendments for purposes of determining, calculating and finally deciding the applicable Base Rate. For the avoidance of doubt, the Issuer will not be obliged to take any such actions until obliged to do so pursuant to Clause 18.3.2.
- 18.3.2 If a Base Rate Event has occurred, the Issuer shall use all commercially reasonable endeavours to, as soon as reasonably practicable and at the Issuer’s expense, appoint an Independent Adviser to initiate the procedure to determine, as soon as commercially reasonable, a Successor Base Rate, the Adjustment Spread and any Base Rate Amendments for purposes of determining, calculating, and finally deciding the applicable Base Rate.
- 18.3.3 If the Issuer fails to appoint an Independent Adviser in accordance with Clause 18.3.2, the Noteholders shall, if so decided at a Noteholders’ Meeting or by way of Written Procedure, be entitled to appoint an Independent Adviser (at the Issuer’s expense) for the purposes set forth in Clause 18.3.2. If an event of default has occurred and is continuing, or if the Issuer fails to carry out any other actions set forth in Clause 18.3 to 18.6, the Agent (acting on the instructions of the Noteholders) may to the extent necessary effectuate any Base Rate Amendments without the Issuer’s cooperation.
- 18.3.4 The Independent Adviser shall also initiate the procedure to determine any technical, administrative or operational changes required to ensure the proper operation of a Successor Base Rate or to reflect the adoption of such Successor Base Rate in a manner substantially consistent with market practice (“Base Rate Amendments”).
- 18.3.5 Provided that a Successor Base Rate, the applicable Adjustment Spread and any Base Rate Amendments have been finally decided no later than prior to the relevant Quotation Day in relation to the next succeeding Interest Period, they shall become effective with effect from and including the commencement of the next succeeding Interest Period, always subject to any technical limitations of the CSD and any calculations methods applicable to such Successor Base Rate.

18.4 Interim measures

18.4.1 If a Base Rate Event set out in any of the paragraphs (a) to (e) of the Base Rate Event definition has occurred but no Successor Base Rate and Adjustment Spread have been finally decided prior to the relevant Quotation Day in relation to the next succeeding Interest Period or if such Successor Base Rate and Adjustment Spread have been finally decided but due to technical limitations of the CSD, cannot be applied in relation to the relevant Quotation Day, the Interest Rate applicable to the next succeeding Interest Period shall be:

- (a) if the previous Base Rate is available, determined pursuant to the terms that would apply to the determination of the Base Rate as if no Base Rate Event had occurred; or
- (b) if the previous Base Rate is no longer available or cannot be used in accordance with applicable law or regulation, equal to the Interest Rate determined for the immediately preceding Interest Period.

18.4.2 For the avoidance of doubt, Clause 18.4.1 shall apply only to the relevant next succeeding Interest Period and any subsequent Interest Periods are subject to the subsequent operation of, and to adjustments as provided in, this Clause 18. This will however not limit the application of Clause 18.4.1 for any subsequent Interest Periods, should all relevant actions provided in this Clause 18 have been taken, but without success.

18.5 Notices etc.

Prior to the Successor Base Rate, the applicable Adjustment Spread and any Base Rate Amendments become effective the Issuer shall promptly, following the final decision by the Independent Adviser of any Successor Base Rate, Adjustment Spread and any Base Rate Amendments, give notice thereof to the Agent, the Issuing Agent and the Noteholders in accordance with Clause 24 (Notices) and the CSD. The notice shall also include information about the effective date of the amendments. If the Notes are admitted to trading on a stock exchange, the Issuer shall also give notice of the amendments to the relevant stock exchange.

18.6 Variation upon replacement of Base Rate

18.6.1 No later than giving the Agent notice pursuant to Clause 18.5, the Issuer shall deliver to the Agent a certificate signed by the Independent Adviser and the CEO, CFO or any other duly authorised signatory of the Issuer (subject to Clause 18.3.3) confirming the relevant Successor Base Rate, the Adjustment Spread and any Base Rate Amendments, in each case as determined and decided in accordance with the provisions of this Clause 18. The Successor Base Rate the Adjustment Spread and any Base Rate Amendments (as applicable) specified in such certificate will, in the absence of manifest error or bad faith in any decision, be binding on the Issuer, the Agent, the Issuing Agent and the Noteholders.

18.6.2 Subject to receipt by the Agent of the certificate referred to in Clause 18.6.1, the Issuer and the Agent shall, at the request and expense of the Issuer, without the requirement for any consent or approval of the Noteholders, without undue delay effect such amendments to the Finance Documents as may be required by the Issuer in order to give effect to this Clause 18.

18.6.3 The Agent and the Issuing Agent shall always be entitled to consult with external experts prior to amendments are effected pursuant to this Clause 18. Neither the Agent nor the Issuing Agent shall be obliged to concur if in the reasonable opinion of the Agent or the Issuing Agent (as applicable), doing so would impose more onerous obligations upon it or expose it to any additional duties, responsibilities or liabilities or reduce or amend the protective provisions afforded to the Agent or the Issuing Agent in the Finance Documents.

18.7 Limitation of liability for the Independent Adviser

Any Independent Adviser appointed pursuant to Clause 18.3 shall not be liable whatsoever for damage or loss caused by any determination, action taken or omitted by it under or in connection with any Finance Document, unless directly caused by its gross negligence or wilful misconduct. The Independent Adviser shall never be responsible for indirect or consequential loss.

19.1.1 By subscribing for Notes, each initial Noteholder appoints the Agent to act as its agent in all matters relating to the Notes and the Finance Documents, and authorises the Agent to act on its behalf (without first having to obtain its consent, unless such consent is specifically required by these Terms and Conditions) in any legal or arbitration proceedings relating to the Notes held by such Noteholder, including the winding-up, dissolution, liquidation, company reorganisation or bankruptcy (or its equivalent in any other jurisdiction) of the Issuer. By acquiring Notes, each subsequent Noteholder confirms such appointment and authorisation for the Agent to act on its behalf.

19.1.2 Each Noteholder shall immediately upon request provide the Agent with any such documents, including a written power of attorney (in form and substance satisfactory to the Agent), that the Agent deems necessary for the purpose of exercising its rights and/or carrying out its duties under the Finance Documents. The Agent is under no obligation to represent a Noteholder which does not comply with such request.

19.1.3 The Issuer shall promptly upon request provide the Agent with any documents and other assistance (in form and substance satisfactory to the Agent), that the Agent deems necessary for the purpose of exercising its rights and/or carrying out its duties under the Finance Documents.

19.1.4 The Agent is entitled to fees for its work and to be indemnified for costs, losses and liabilities on the terms set out in the Finance Documents and the Agency Agreement and the Agent's obligations as Agent under the Finance Documents are conditioned upon the due payment of such fees and indemnifications.

19.1.5 The Agent may act as agent or trustee for several issues of securities or other loans issued by or relating to the Issuer and other Group Companies notwithstanding potential conflicts of interest.

19.2 Duties of the Agent

19.2.1 The Agent shall represent the Noteholders in accordance with the Finance Documents. However, the Agent is not responsible for the execution or enforceability of the Finance Documents.

19.2.2 When acting in accordance with the Finance Documents, the Agent is always acting with binding effect on behalf of the Noteholders. The Agent is never acting as an advisor to the Noteholders or the Issuer. Any advice or opinion from the Agent does not bind the Noteholders or the Issuer. The Agent shall act in the best interest of the Noteholders as a group and carry out its duties under the Finance Documents in a reasonable, proficient and professional manner, with reasonable care and skill.

19.2.3 The Agent is entitled to delegate its duties to other professional parties, but the Agent shall remain liable for the actions of such parties under the Finance Documents.

19.2.4 The Agent shall treat all Noteholders equally and, when acting pursuant to the Finance Documents, act with regard only to the interests of the Noteholders and shall not be required to have regard to the interests or to act upon or comply with any direction or request of any other person, other than as explicitly stated in the Finance Documents.

- 19.2.5 Notwithstanding any other provision of the Finance Documents to the contrary, the Agent is not obliged to do or omit to do anything if it would or might in its reasonable opinion constitute a breach of any law or regulation.
- 19.2.6 If in the Agent's reasonable opinion the cost, loss or liability which it may incur (including reasonable fees to the Agent) in complying with instructions of the Noteholders, or taking any action at its own initiative, will not be covered by the Issuer, the Agent may refrain from acting in accordance with such instructions, or taking such action, until it has received such funding or indemnities (or adequate security has been provided therefore) as it may reasonably require.
- 19.2.7 The Agent shall give a notice to the Noteholders:
- (a) before it ceases to perform its obligations under the Finance Documents by reason of the non-payment by the Issuer of any fee or indemnity due to the Agent under the Finance Documents or the Agency Agreement; or
 - (b) if it refrains from acting for any reason described in Clause 19.2.6.
- 19.2.8 The Agent is entitled to engage external experts when carrying out its duties under the Finance Documents. - (a) an event or circumstance which the Agent reasonably believes is or may lead to a breach of the Terms and Conditions or may lead to a bankruptcy or liquidation of the Issuer;
 - (b) in connection with any Noteholders' meeting or Written Procedure;
 - (c) in connection with any amendment (whether contemplated by the Finance Documents or not) or waiver under the Finance Documents; or
 - (d) a matter relating to the Issuer which the Agent reasonably believes may be detrimental to the interests of the Noteholders under the Finance Documents.
- Any compensation for damages or other recoveries received by the Agent from external experts engaged by it for the purpose of carrying out its duties under the Finance Documents shall be distributed in accordance with Clause 15 (Distribution of proceeds).
- 19.2.9 Other than as specifically set out in the Finance Documents, the Agent shall not be obliged to monitor (i) the performance, default or any breach by the Issuer or any other party of its obligations under the Finance Documents, (ii) the financial condition of the Issuer and the Group or (iii) whether any other event specified in any Finance Document has occurred or is expected to occur. Should the Agent not receive such information, the Agent is entitled to assume that no such event or circumstance exists or can be expected to occur, provided that the Agent does not have actual knowledge of such event or circumstance.
- 19.2.10 The Agent shall, as applicable, enter into agreements with the CSD, and comply with such agreement and the CSD Regulations applicable to the Agent, as may be necessary in order for the Agent to carry out its duties under the Finance Documents.

19.3 Liability for the Agent

- 19.3.1 The Agent will not be liable to the Noteholders for damage or loss caused by any action taken or omitted by it under or in connection with any Finance Document, unless directly caused by its negligence or wilful misconduct. The Agent shall never be responsible for indirect loss.
- 19.3.2 The Agent shall not be considered to have acted negligently if it has acted in accordance with advice from or opinions of reputable external experts provided to the Agent or if the Agent has acted with reasonable care in a situation when the Agent considers that it is detrimental to the interests of the Noteholders to delay the action in order to first obtain instructions from the Noteholders.

- 19.3.3 The Agent shall not be liable for any delay (or any related consequences) in crediting an account with an amount required pursuant to the Finance Documents to be paid by the Agent to the Noteholders, provided that the Agent has taken all necessary steps as soon as reasonably practicable to comply with the regulations or operating procedures of any recognised clearing or settlement system used by the Agent for that purpose.
- 19.3.4 The Agent shall have no liability to the Noteholders for damage caused by the Agent acting in accordance with instructions of the Noteholders given in accordance with Clause 16 (Decisions by Noteholders).
- 19.3.5 Any liability towards the Issuer which is incurred by the Agent in acting under, or in relation to, the Finance Documents shall not be subject to set-off against the obligations of the Issuer to the Noteholders under the Finance Documents.

19.4 Replacement of the Agent

- 19.4.1 Subject to Clause 19.4.6, the Agent may resign by giving notice to the Issuer and the Noteholders, in which case the Noteholders shall appoint a successor Agent at a Noteholders' Meeting convened by the retiring Agent or by way of Written Procedure initiated by the retiring Agent.
- 19.4.2 Subject to Clause 19.4.6, if the Agent is Insolvent, the Agent shall be deemed to resign as Agent and the Issuer shall within ten (10) Business Days appoint a successor Agent which shall be an independent financial institution or other reputable company which regularly acts as agent under debt issuances.
- 19.4.3 A Noteholder (or Noteholders) representing at least ten (10) per cent. of the Adjusted Total Nominal Amount may, by notice to the Issuer (such notice may only be validly given by a person who is a Noteholder on the Business Day immediately following the day on which the notice is received by the Issuer and shall, if given by several Noteholders, be given by them jointly), require that a Noteholders' Meeting is held for the purpose of dismissing the Agent and appointing a new Agent. The Issuer may, at a Noteholders' Meeting convened by it or by way of Written Procedure initiated by it, propose to the Noteholders that the Agent be dismissed and a new Agent appointed.
- 19.4.4 If the Noteholders have not appointed a successor Agent within ninety (90) days after:
- (a) the earlier of the notice of resignation was given or the resignation otherwise took place; or
 - (b) the Agent was dismissed through a decision by the Noteholders,
- the Issuer shall appoint a successor Agent which shall be an independent financial institution or other reputable company which regularly acts as agent under debt issuances.
- 19.4.5 The retiring Agent shall, at its own cost, make available to the successor Agent such documents and records and provide such assistance as the successor Agent may reasonably request for the purposes of performing its functions as Agent under the Finance Documents.
- 19.4.6 The Agent's resignation or dismissal shall only take effect upon the appointment of a successor Agent and acceptance by such successor Agent of such appointment and the execution of all necessary documentation to effectively substitute the retiring Agent.
- 19.4.7 Upon the appointment of a successor, the retiring Agent shall be discharged from any further obligation in respect of the Finance Documents but shall remain entitled to the benefit of the Finance Documents and remain liable under the Finance Documents in respect of any action which it took or failed to take whilst acting as Agent. Its successor, the Issuer and each of the Noteholders shall have the same rights and obligations amongst themselves under the Finance Documents as they would have had if such successor had been the original Agent.

- 19.4.8 In the event that there is a change of the Agent in accordance with this Clause 19.4, the Issuer shall execute such documents and take such actions as the new Agent may reasonably require for the purpose of vesting in such new Agent the rights, powers and obligation of the Agent and releasing the retiring Agent from its further obligations under the Finance Documents and the Agency Agreement. Unless the Issuer and the new Agent agree otherwise, the new Agent shall be entitled to the same fees and the same indemnities as the retiring Agent.

20. THE ISSUING AGENT

- 20.1 The Issuer shall when necessary appoint an Issuing Agent to manage certain specified tasks under these Terms and Conditions and in accordance with the legislation, rules and regulations applicable to and/or issued by the CSD and relating to the Notes. The Issuing Agent shall be a commercial bank or securities institution approved by the CSD.
- 20.2 The Issuer shall ensure that the Issuing Agent enters into agreements with the CSD, and comply with such agreement and the CSD Regulations applicable to the Issuing Agent, as may be necessary in order for the Issuing Agent to carry out its duties relating to the Notes.
- 20.3 The Issuing Agent will not be liable to the Noteholders for damage or loss caused by any action taken or omitted by it under or in connection with any Finance Document, unless directly caused by its gross negligence or wilful misconduct. The Issuing Agent shall never be responsible for indirect or consequential loss.

- 21.1 The Issuer has appointed the CSD to manage certain tasks under these Terms and Conditions and in accordance with the CSD Regulations and the other regulations applicable to the Notes.
- 21.2 The CSD may retire from its assignment or be dismissed by the Issuer, provided that the Issuer has effectively appointed a replacement CSD that accedes as CSD at the same time as the old CSD retires or is dismissed and provided also that the replacement does not have a negative effect on any Noteholder or any admission to trading of the Notes. The replacing CSD must be authorised to professionally conduct clearing operations pursuant to the Swedish Securities Markets Act (lag (2007:528) om värdepappersmarknaden) and be authorised as a central securities depository in accordance with the Financial Instruments Accounts Act.

Summary description of Resurs Group's businesses and markets

Principal business activities

The Issuer is the ultimate holding company of the Resurs Group and the primary business is carried out by its wholly-owned subsidiary Resurs Bank. Resurs Bank is a Nordic niche bank providing payment and financing solutions for the retail sector and its customers. Resurs Bank has divided its business into two business segments: Payment Solutions and Consumer Loans, based on the products and services that Resurs Bank offers. Payment Solutions offers sales-supporting financing, payment and loyalty solutions to the retail sector, as well as credit cards to the general public and factoring. Consumer Loans is primarily focused on loans to consumers. Resurs Bank, through Solid Försäkringsaktiefbolag as an insurer, also brokers insurances. As of 30 September 2023, Resurs Bank's Payment Solutions and Consumer Loans business segments had a loan portfolio totalling some SEK 39.8 billion. Resurs Bank has continuously expanded its business and its loan portfolio has increased from some SEK 9.3 billion on 31 December 2013 to some SEK 39.8 billion on 30 September 2023.

From its head office in Helsingborg, Sweden, Resurs Bank has developed long-term relations with a large number of companies in the retail sector in the Nordic region. Resurs Bank is developing its base of retail finance customers and increasing its sales penetration through partnerships with e-commerce and retail chains. Management believes that Resurs Bank's possibilities to develop its offering based on an omnichannel strategy (in stores, online and mobile) and by approaching consumers through a wealth of different retail channels, constitute an important competitive advantage which contributes to ensuring a broad penetration of retail finance products. In addition, Resurs Bank covers a broad demographic range and compiles information about its payment solution and consumer loan customers. Resurs Bank's business model is based on availing itself of retail finance business and thereby developing relationships with retail finance partners and extensive data and industry know-how, in order to generate a large and diversified group of potential credit card and consumer loan customers, and to be able to effectively provide credit cards and consumer loans to such potential customers. Resurs Bank markets its credit cards and consumer loans to existing customers primarily by letter, telemarketing and together with invoices, and to new customers through mass mailouts, online marketing and a network of loan brokers.

Resurs Bank's management believes that risk management is most effective when the method used is adapted to the specific characteristics of the product offered and the customer to whom the product is offered. Depending on product, Resurs Bank's risk assessment and decision-making processes are based on automatic selection from among a large number of templates and models that are used to organise and filter information, which is then checked against Resurs Bank's credit policies in order to generate a final credit decision. In addition, depending on product type and the size of the loan, Resurs Bank uses information from its internal database and from other information sources to apply risk-based pricing, according to which personal information about the applicant is combined with information from credit agencies in order to generate a final credit decision for each applicant.

Resurs Bank's product range, local retail sector know-how and geographic presence have been improved through a number of acquisitions in recent years. In 2013, Resurs Bank acquired Ellos Finans's loan portfolio. The acquisition of Finaref and Dan-Aktiv (now merged with Resurs Bank) in 2014 contributed to Resurs Bank strengthening its geographic presence and increased the Retail Finance and Consumer Loans business throughout the Nordic region, particularly in Finland and Denmark. In the autumn of 2015, Resurs Bank acquired yA Bank (now merged with Resurs Bank), a Norwegian bank specialising in consumer loans. Through the acquisition, Resurs Bank acquired yA Bank's consumer loan portfolio, deposit products, retail finance partners and a network of loan brokers in Norway, as well as its credit card customers. These acquisitions have contributed to Resurs Bank achieving a business with a geographic spread throughout the Nordic region, namely 55 per cent (Sweden), 14 per cent (Norway), 18 per cent (Finland) and 13 per cent (Denmark) of the outstanding loan portfolio, as of 31 December 2023.

Resurs Bank's funding comes from several sources. The largest source is deposits from the public. This form of financing has for several years been offered to customers in Sweden and Norway (through the then wholly owned subsidiary, now merged with Resurs Bank, yA Bank AS). Since the end of 2018, deposits have also been offered to customers in Germany in EUR in cooperation with the company Raisin DS GmbH ("Raisin"), which has a deposit platform aimed at German customers through its website.

Deposits are analysed regularly and, as of 31 December 2023, totalled SEK 36 170 million distributed between Sweden 41 per cent, Germany 51 per cent and Norway 8 per cent. Other types of funding include notes issued under a medium term note programme. Resurs Bank has regularly issued notes under the medium term note programme. Resurs Bank has primarily issued notes in Sweden, but also in Norway. Within the scope of the medium term note programme, there are nine (9) outstanding issues of notes, divided into nominal amounts of SEK 3,400 million and NOK 450 million. Seven (7) of the nine (9) note issues are senior unsecured notes and two (2) issues are subordinated notes of SEK 600 million, as of 30 September 2023.

Resurs Bank has carried out securitisation of loan claims through a form of structured financing referred to as Asset Backed Securities (“ABS”). This has taken place through loan receivables being assigned to Resurs Bank’s wholly-owned subsidiary Resurs Consumer Loans. As of 31 March 2023, approximately SEK 2.5 billion in loan receivables were transferred to Resurs Consumer Loans. Resurs Bank and Resurs Consumer Loans have pledged collateral over assets included in the securitisation. As of 31 March 2023, the external financing amounted to SEK 2.0 billion within the ABS financing. Resurs Consumer Loans’ acquisition of the loan receivables is financed by an international financial institution. In December 2023 Resurs Bank extended and increased the existing ABS financing and there is a right to continue to sell certain loan receivables to Resurs Consumer Loans for a period of 18 months (revolving period) from the latest extension date. The external financing amount increased from SEK 2 billion to SEK 3 billion.

As of 30 November 2023, Resurs Bank has entered into a partnership with Lowell, a European actor in credit management services. The partnership, which involves a SEK 1.2 billion securitisation of past due receivables, aims to strengthen Resurs Bank’s capital position. The transaction is expected to result in capital relief of SEK 900 million.

Principal markets

Resurs Bank operates primarily on the Nordic consumer credit market and has divided its business into two primary categories: Consumer Loans and Payment Solutions, as described below.

- Consumer Loans

The Consumer Loans business area is primarily focused on direct loans to consumers. Within this business area, Resurs Bank offers unsecured loans of up to SEK 500,000. Consumer loans are used primarily to finance major purchases, expand existing loans or to finance general consumption. Consumer Loans also offers consolidation of loans that customers have with other banks. The average loan is around SEK 154,000.

- Payment Solutions

The Payment Solutions business area comprises the Retail Finance, Credit Cards and Factoring sub-categories.

- Retail Finance

Within the Retail Finance sub-category, Resurs Bank offers sales-supporting financing, payment and loyalty solutions as a player in the Nordic region. The average loan is around SEK 2,000.

- Credit Cards

Within the Credit Cards sub-category, Resurs Bank offers its own credit cards, but also cards where retail finance partners can profile their own brands. Debit and credit cards are used to make payment at a later date. The total credit card balance includes both the interest-bearing and non-interest-bearing balance.

- Factoring

Within Factoring, focus is primarily placed on the purchase of invoices and the granting of loans against invoices for small and medium-size companies. This is a quick and simple method for companies to increase their liquidity and reduce their credit risk.

Resurs Bank’s geographic markets comprise Sweden, Norway, Denmark and Finland.

Credit rating

On 19 April 2021, Resurs Bank received a credit rating from Nordic Credit Rating (“NCR”) of BBB (long-term) and N3 (short-term). On 22 January 2024, NCR confirmed the rating but adjusted the outlook from stable to negative.

Material agreements

The following is a summary of material agreements which has been concluded within the Resurs Group outside the ordinary course of business of the relevant Group Company, which may result in the Group Company being granted a right or imposed an obligation that may materially affect the Group Company's ability to meet its obligations to Noteholders.

Resurs Bank has a diversified funding base consisting of public deposits, equity, securitisations and MTNs.

Resurs Bank strives for diversified funding, which includes issuing bonds secured by underlying loan portfolios (so-called securitisation) and Resurs Bank completed its first securitisation issue on 12 June 2015 with a book value of approximately SEK 1,800 million. To enable the securitisation issue, Resurs Bank has established a financing structure whereby Resurs Bank sells loan receivables to Resurs Consumer Loans, which acts as a special purpose vehicle ("SPV") used specifically for securitisation issuance. Resurs Bank regularly sells consumer loans to the SPV, which will generally finance the purchase of such consumer loans on the basis of a securitisation issues secured mainly by the loan portfolio. The amount of funding has varied over the years. As of 31 December 2023, approximately SEK 3.7 billion of loan receivables have been transferred to Resurs Consumer Loans. The acquisition of the loan receivables by Resurs Consumer Loans is financed by an international financial institution and the external financing amounts to SEK 3 billion as at 31 December 2023. In December 2023 Resurs Bank extended and increased the existing ABS financing and there is a right to continue to sell certain loan receivables to Resurs Consumer Loans for a period of 18 months (revolving period) from the latest extension date. The financing amount increases from SEK 2 billion to SEK 3 billion. Resurs Bank and Resurs Consumer Loans have provided security for the assets included in the securitisation. Further, Resurs Bank has entered into a partnership with Lowell on 30 November 2023 involving a SEK 1.2 billion securitisation of past due receivables, aims to strengthen Resurs Bank's capital position. The transaction is expected to result in capital relief of SEK 900 million.

On 9 March 2015, Resurs Bank launched its MTN programme. Over the years, Resurs Bank has continuously issued bonds and subordinated loans under the MTN programme. The MTN programme provides Resurs Bank with a funding opportunity in SEK, EUR and NOK.

Resurs Bank also finances its operations through deposits from the public. As of 31 December 2023, Resurs Bank's total deposits from the public amounted to SEK 36,170 million, of which approximately 17 per cent was mediated via Avanza Bank AB ("Avanza") and approximately 35 per cent via Raisin, with which Resurs Bank has entered into a cooperation agreement regarding mediation of deposits from the public. The extent of deposits from the public mediated via Avanza and Raisin varies over time. Management is outsourced and refers to deposits from the public in SEK and EUR, which are covered by the Swedish deposit guarantee system.

Legal and arbitration proceedings

Neither the Issuer nor any other company within the Resurs Group has been party to any governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings (including any such proceedings which are pending or threatened of which the Issuer is aware) during the 12 months preceding the date of this Prospectus which may have, or have had in the recent past, significant effects on the Issuer's and/or the Resurs Group's financial position or profitability. However, Resurs Bank is from time to time subject to various claims and legal actions arising in the course of its business operations. For instance, in mid-November 2023, the Swedish Administrative Court (Förvaltningsrätten) overturned the Swedish FSA's decision to issue Resurs Bank a remark combined with an administrative fine of SEK 50 million. The Swedish FSA has subsequently decided to appeal the Administrative Court's ruling, and the Administrative Court of Appeal decided in January 2024 to grant leave to appeal. Furthermore, in Denmark Finanstilsynet and Forbrugerombudmanden have issued guidelines on creditworthiness assessment which are more stringent than previous practice and that require that available amounts be determined on the basis of tariffs, which are set at a higher level than those previously used in the industry. In January 2022, Resurs Bank received a decision from Finanstilsynet imposing certain obligations due to possible non-compliance with the guidelines. Resurs Bank has appealed the decision and requested that it be annulled, but has in the meantime taken internal measures in accordance with the decision. In May 2022, Forbrugerombudmanden intervened in the appeal submitted by Resurs against Finanstilsynet's decision. As a result, the scope of the case has been extended to include an examination of whether a specific credit assessment carried out by Resurs in relation to a specific customer was compatible with the Danish requirements concerning the credit assessment of consumers. A court hearing in Østre Landsret is scheduled for January 2024. Neither the Issuer nor Resurs Bank expect that legal disputes regarding such claims will have a material adverse effect on Resurs Group's financial position or profitability.
